Paper 1: The Universal Father

Introduction

A grasp of the ideas contained within The Urantia Book can be enhanced by understanding the underlying structure of the text. The text has a unique structure not unlike that of a symphony.

The first five papers of the book can be considered the symphonic prelude. Contained within the prelude are many small hints of themes placed in a sequence which give an initial hint of the underlying expansive grandeur of the revelation, but whose full pattern and relationship to the whole can only be grasped through complete, sequential readings of the entire text. While these themes are developed in the first three parts of the text largely as theoretical abstractions, in Part IV they become alive with rich harmonic depths as they are expressed in the life of Jesus.

To extend this concept we could observe that a knowledge of music theory and history is not essential to the experience of the beauty of music. However, if one desires to become a musician, the dedicated and disciplined acquisition of knowledge and skill becomes essential. And so it is with spiritual affairs: We have the option of being passive listeners or becoming creative musicians participating in the symphony of finite creation.

If we're willing to consider the text as a symphony, we might consider the Foreword as the program notes. While the Foreword is an interesting study by itself, it will prove useful as a reference to be used during a study of the rest of the text. With this in mind, references to the Foreword will be included in the following studies at appropriate points.

Continue to read, and when you come to concepts you do not understand, try to create initial meanings for them by considering the context in which you find them. Then consider and modify this meaning in the next context where the concept appears. Keep a notebook in which you maintain sections on topics of interest to you such as the soul, life after death, God the Supreme, etc. When you find quotes which expand your understanding of these topics, put them into your notebook along with a paragraph or two describing the insight they provided. In this way you will gradually build up a broad understanding of some of these terms and their relationships as you read through the text.

Temper your study with the comment found at 102:1.1 which reminds us that, "Human things must be known in order to be loved, but divine things must be loved in order to be known."

Before beginning Paper 1, it would be helpful to study certain sections of the Foreword. Read the start of the Foreword through section II. Then read Section IV on Universe Reality and Section V on Personality Realities.

[\[1:3.5\]](#) At the end of this paper the functional integration of the Universal Father, the Eternal Son and the Infinite Spirit is introduced as the Paradise Trinity. Paper 2: The Nature of God

1. Why is the nature of God best understood through the life and teachings of Jesus?
2. What are three of the ways in which the infinite God comes into direct contact with finite mortal beings? 2:1.6,7
3. If "Mortal man can glimpse the Father's purposes only now and then, here and there..." how is it we are admonished to seek to do the Father's will? 2:1.10
4. In a fully unified and integrated universe, how is it that potential evil is not a part of the divine nature, yet man's experience with evil is a part of God's self-realization? 2:2.7
5. Why does the full embrace of sin automatically result in annihilation? At what point do the Creator Sons cease their rehabilitative efforts? 2:3.6. Is the application of divine mercy a matter of God making exceptions due to his tolerance of the incompleteness of evolving mortals? 2:4
7. Why is it an error to believe that Jesus had to intercede for humanity in order to secure God's forgiveness and love? 2:5
8. What clues about the nature of personality can we get from the statement indicating that a sin identified mortal would become wholly unspiritual in nature and therefore personally unreal? 2:6.8
9. What does it mean to wholly identify with sin or to fully identify oneself with the indwelling Adjuster? 2:6.8
10. The first paragraph in section 7 of this paper says that, "All finite knowledge and creature understanding are relative. Information and intelligence, gleaned from even high sources, is only relatively complete, locally accurate, and personally true." How are we to "believe" the description of reality given in The Urantia Book in light of this statement?
11. In this Paper we find the first mention of the Supreme Being in a context which implies that this concept has something to do with "the oversoul of creation" and a reality which has "evolving experience". 2:3.4 This is a concept which will continue to be developed throughout the text and is the subject of a series of four Papers--Paper 115, Paper 116, Paper 117 and Paper 118.

Some Study Group Questions
Paper 3: The Attributes of God

1. What is the primary characteristic of the Divine nature? What are the implications of this for the way in which we relate to each other as personalities? 3:0.3

2. The introduction to this paper highlights God's creatorship. Each section of the rest of the paper can be read as articulating various aspects of his creator nature. Study this paper with this thought in mind and then consider question 14 below.

3. 3:1.6 makes a reference to God's "unchanging purpose." If we consider creatorship the primary characteristic of the Divine nature, what might this lead us to consider as his "unchanging purpose?"

4. Proceeding outward from Paradise, the Divine presence is increasingly attenuated, modified and conditioned by subordinate agencies. As mortals coming into existence on evolutionary worlds, we stand at the far distant end of this attenuated process. Yet there are two areas accessible to our own experience in which God operates directly. What are they? 3:1.6

5. These early papers often introduce themes which will be more fully developed in later sections of the book. What sort of theme can we imagine might be developed from 3:1.7?

6. What determines the degree of God's divine influence within our own individual minds and souls? 3:1.9,10,11,12

7. Another major structural element of the cosmos is introduced in 3:1.12--God the Sevenfold. Do we have enough information at this point to have a beginning concept of who might be a part of God the Sevenfold?

7. The statement, "with God all things are possible" is conditioned by the phrase, "within the bounds of that which is consistent with the divine nature." What does this statement tell us about our prayer life? 3:2.2

8. If creatorship is the primary characteristic of the Divine nature, how does this relate to the statement that, "Creature mind...is not directly responsive to the Universal Father. God adjusts with the mind of imperfection..."? 2:2.5

9. One of the classic questions in religious discussions involves the matter of evil and suffering--if God is perfect why is there evil and suffering in the world? (Outside The Urantia Book this is widely referred to as the theodicy issue.) What light does 3:2 shed on the theodicy issue? Does the explanation given here satisfactorily answer this question in your mind?

10. In these first papers of The Urantia Book we are introduced to some very unfamiliar terms -- "the absolute level," "thought Adjuster," "the Unqualified Absolute," etc. What sort of long-term learning and reading strategies might we employ which would enable us to enhance our current understanding while simultaneously seeking to understand completely new concepts? What attitudes might we cultivate which would allow our slowly increasing insight into these new concepts to then transform our existing grasp of meanings?

11. 3:4.6 says that "Mortal man cannot possibly know the infinitude of the heavenly Father. ...But this same finite human being can actually feel--literally experience--the full and undiminished impact of such an infinite Father's love." What implications does this statement contain for individuals who would like to enrich their religious and spiritual experience?

12. In question 9 we considered the theodicy issue. How does the list of "inevitabilities" beginning at 3:5.5 affect our insight into this matter?

13. If you have spent some time with questions 9 and 12, read 3:5.16 and 3:5.17 and consider whether the life of the inhabitants of the Havona worlds sounds like something you would enjoy.

14. In what ways do the qualities listed as section titles in this paper, in addition to those listed in 3:6.7, add to our insight into the creatorship nature of Deity? In what ways are these attributes of Deity likely to influence and transform us as we continue to have experiences with universe reality?

15. In this paper (not considering the Foreword) we are quietly introduced to the three Absolutes: The Unqualified Absolute, the Universal Absolute and the Deity Absolute. Note that the introduction of each of these absolutes is conceptually and structurally related to a member of the Paradise Trinity. These relationships (and their associated dynamics and repercussions) are an important structural element of the foundations of the cosmos. They will continue to be developed almost as a separate thread as we continue through the book. At this point can you speculate as to how these relationships as outlined in 3:1.7,8,9 might work together to provide a context in which the creatorship nature of Deity might be expressed, developed and experienced in the finite cosmos?

Some Study Group Questions

Paper 4: God's Relation to the Universe

1. A dictionary definition of "watchword" is "a motto that embodies a principle or guide to action for an individual or a group." What do you make of the comment that "...the watchword of the universe is progress?" 4:1.2
2. In Paper 3 we were introduced the three absolutes--the Unqualified Absolute, the Universal Absolute and the Deity Absolute. [3:1.7,8,9] In Paper 4, these three absolutes are introduced as a group and are given the name "The Absolutes of potentiality." Notice that they are introduced as "the mysterious coordinates" of the Universal Father, the Eternal Son, the Infinite Spirit and the Isle of Paradise. [4:1.8]
3. In [4:1.10] we get a hint that "the living presence of the evolving Supreme Being" is a reality in its own right known as the "Immanence of the Projected Incomplete." At this point in your study, stop to consider the degree to which you have a grasp of the concept of the Supreme Being--which has just been enhanced by encountering the name, "Immanence of the Projected Incomplete"--as contrasted with your understanding of absonite realities as introduced in [1:3.5]. Your understanding is likely to be much better when ideas and concepts are given names (the "Immanence of the Projected Incomplete") and given roles in a cosmic drama than when they are discussed as intellectual abstractions ("The ultimate reality of the personal cosmos is absonite spirit"). Bear this in mind as you try to make sense out of the seeming endless presentation of personalities, roles and relationships given in the Urantia Book. The Urantia Book can be considered as containing a revelation about a personal cosmos being made to creatures endowed with personalities.
4. What realities encountered in daily life might be included in the Urantia Book's definition of "nature" as developed in section 2? As you think about this, consider the statement that "Continuing evolution modifies nature by augmenting the content of paradise perfection." [4:2.4] To what elements of "nature" might the authors be referring?
5. What metaphysical blunders are represented in the belief that God has fits of anger or is "wrathful?" 4:3, 4:5
6. Why do you suppose the Divine Counselor who composed this Paper was instructed to portray God as "the Universal Father?" 4:4.5
7. Read section 5 of this paper and consider ways in which your reading so far in the Urantia Book has influenced your concept of God. What new elements have been added? What incomplete conceptions do you now grasp more clearly? Do you feel that any of the ideas so far presented are misrepresentations of God?
8. With the conclusion of this paper, almost all of the major structural elements of the cosmos which will be developed in The Urantia Book have been mentioned, most of them only in quiet passing and none of them (except the Universal Father) with much detail. These are: The Universal Father, the Eternal Son, the Infinite Spirit and their communal functioning as the Paradise Trinity; the Unqualified Absolute, the Universal Absolute and the Deity Absolute and their related functioning as the Absolutes of potentiality; the Supreme Being, the indwelling spirit as the Thought Adjuster, the Ultimacy of Deity, the absonite level of reality and God the Sevenfold. This would be a good time to review the Foreword, from the start through F:X.5.

Some Study Group Questions
Paper 5: God's Relation to the Individual

1. Earlier in this study we were introduced to the three Absolutes of potentiality. In 5:0.2 it is noted that "God has distributed the infinity of his eternal nature throughout the existential realities of his six absolute co-ordinates..." Can you speculate at this point in your study as to what six realities might comprise "his six absolute co-ordinates?"
 2. What is the key to experiencing a consciousness of knowing God and experiencing assurance of survival beyond the mortal life? 5:1
 3. Compare 5:1.7 "If such a human mind is sincerely and spiritually motivated, if such a human soul desires to know God and become like him..." with 5:1.10 "...choosing of their own perverse ways and by the indulgence of the self-assertiveness of their intolerant minds and unspiritual natures." What can we learn from such a comparison about attitudes of mind which might lead to enhanced spiritual growth?
 4. When the revelators encourage us to develop our relationship with our Thought Adjuster, they use the term "communion." What is the difference between "communion" and "communication?" 5:2.3
 5. One of the approaches taken by the revelators in their efforts to expand our cosmological horizons is the clarification of ideas which already appear in human religious literature and traditions. What insights can we gain into the nature of the soul by considering 5:2.5; 5:5.14 and 5:6.7 and 8?
 6. After reading section 5:3, what are your thoughts regarding the difference between the personal activities of prayer and worship?
 7. How many different definitions of religion can you develop from the material in 5:4?
 8. In what way has the life of Jesus dramatically increased the potentials of evolutionary religion on our world? 5:4.9
 9. 5:5.1 notes that "moral situations require the making of choices in the highest realms of reason..." Can you describe the nature of that process of your own thinking which you might consider to be "the highest realm of reason?" How do you select the meanings and values which will be brought into association with your ideas as you engage in such thinking? How is spiritual insight applied to solving material problems?
 10. After reading 5:5 do you think it would be reasonable to postulate that virtually everyone has a religion? Why or why not?
 11. In item 5 above, you should have considered some of the ways in which the revelators are beginning to expand our understanding of the nature of the soul. How does a reading of section 5:6 expand your understanding of the nature of personality?
 12. If the universe is populated with a great variety of personal beings, and if we imagine that part of the evolutionary destiny of the universe is the development of an integrated civilization encompassing all these beings, what might we postulate about the nature of the culture which might encompass such a civilization as a result of reading 5:6.10 and 11?
 13. The first five papers of The Urantia Book were presented by a Divine Counselor of Uversa. What can we infer from 5:6.13 about the nature of the task assigned to this Divine Counselor? In what ways have the teachings of this Divine Counselor enhanced your understanding of God?

THE TRINITY: ITS PURPOSE AND FUNCTIONS

Revelations of the Trinity on Urantia:

The first Urantia revelation of the Paradise Trinity was made by the staff of our first Planetary Prince, Calagastia, one half million years ago and was lost to the world in the unsettled times following the planetary rebellion about 200,000 years ago.

The second revelation was made by Adam and Eve, in the first and second gardens.

These teachings had not been obliterated when the third revelation was presented by Machiventa Melchizedek and the Salem teachers about 4,000 years ago. This doctrine was symbolized by three concentric circles which the sage of Salem wore on his breast plate. (1143:#1:1-3) Through the activities of the Salem missionaries, the Melchizedek teachings of the Trinity gradually spread throughout Eurasia and northern Africa. 1144:2

The Trinitarian concept found its way into Hinduism and Buddhism, -- the idea of a three-fold manifestation of a monotheistic God. However, the monotheistic zeal for the one God, Yahweh, by the Hebrews so eclipsed all such teachings that by the time of Jesus' appearance, the Elohim doctrine had been practically eradicated from Jewish theology. The Hebrew mind could not reconcile the trinitarian concept with the monotheistic belief in the One Lord, the God of Israel. 1144:2-4

Jesus taught his apostles the truth regarding the persons of the Paradise Trinity but they were confused as to the identity of the Trinity. 1144:8

Not since the time of Jesus has the factual identity of the Paradise Trinity been known on Urantia until its presentation in these revelatory disclosures, the Urantia Book. 1145:2

Purpose and Functions:

"Our concept of the eternal Paradise Trinity is an ever-present reminder that Deity trinitization may accomplish what is otherwise non-attainable." 16:6

"The Trinity association of the three Paradise Deities results in the evolution, eventuation, and deitization of new meanings, values, powers, and capacities for universal revelation, action, and administration. group potential is FAR IN EXCESS of the SUM OF THE ATTRIBUTES of the component individuals." 113:#5:2

"The Paradise Trinity of eternal Deities facilitates the Father's escape from personality absolutism"..... they "effectively provide for the Father's liberation from limitations - otherwise inherent in primacy,perfection, changelessness, eternity, universality, absoluteness, and infinity."

"The Trinity is Deity unity, and this unity rests eternally upon the absolute foundations of the divine ONENESS OF THE THREE original, and coordinate and coexistent personalities, God the Father, God the Son, and God the Spirit. 108:Intro.

"The Universal Father, the Eternal Son, and the Infinite Spirit are unique persons; none is a duplicate, each is original; ALL ARE UNITED." 110:4

"Notwithstanding there is only ONE DEITY, there are three positive and divine PERSONALIZATIONS of Deity." 110:#3:1

"God is the Father-Absolute of ALL personalities in the universe of universes." 111:7

"Spiritually the Eternal Son is omnipresent. The spirit of the Eternal Son is most certainly with you and around you, but not within you and a part of you like the Mystery Monitor"..... he is "the spiritual drawing power of the all-powerful spirit-gravity circuit of the Second Source and Center." 76:#4:6

"The Third Source and Center is the universal unifier of the manifold energies and diverse creations." 98:2 "You should think of the Third Source and Center as a universal coordinator, a minister of unlimited cooperation." 99:3

"They not only act personally and collectively, but they also coordinate their performances in VARIOUS GROUPINGS, so that, in the end they function in SEVEN DIFFERENT SINGULAR AND PLURAL capacities. And since these seven ASSOCIATIONS exhaust the possibilities for such divinity combination, it is inevitable that the realities of the universe shall appear in SEVEN VARIATIONS of values,.....meanings,.....and personality."  110:7

"Early in the materialization of the universal creation the SEVENFOLD SCHEME of the universe organization and government was formulated." (164:2) This is the seven "variously diversified will aspects of the Deities." 1318:3, 4

NOTE: Regarding Jesus' subjecting himself to these seven wills of the Deity in his seven bestowals: "The Creator Son achieved the revelation of the variously diversified wills of the Paradise Deities, whose synthetic unity, as revealed by the Supreme Creators, is revelatory of the will of the Supreme Being." 1318:3

"Through the recognition of the Trinity concept the mind of men can hope to grasp something of the interrelationship of LOVE AND LAW in the time-space creations,.....spiritual faith has no influence on the ordained laws of the material universe,.....expanding cosmic horizons demand that he (man) give recognition to the reality of Paradise Deity as UNIVERSAL LAW,.....that he recognize the Trinity Sovereignty extending outward from Paradise and overshadowing even the evolving local universes of the Creator Sons and Creative Daughters of the three eternal persons, whose Deity union is the fact and reality and eternal indivisibility of the Paradise Trinity." 1145:#2:3

"And this selfsame Paradise Trinity is a real entity, - not a personality,.....nonetheless a true and absolute REALITY. The Trinity is a supersummative Deity reality eventuating out of the conjoining of the three Paradise Deities. The qualities, characteristics and functions of the Trinity are NOT the simple sum of the attributes of the three Paradise Deities; Trinity functions are something unique, original, and not wholly predictable from an analysis of the attributes of the Father, Son and Spirit." 1145:#2:LP

"Without coordinate existences there is no possibility for the appearance of DIVERSITY of absolute relationships, no chance for the operation of differentials,.....variables,.....modifiers,.....attenuators,.....qualifiers,.....or diminishers." 1146:#3:3

".....the Paradise Trinity, like the Supreme Being, is concerned only with the total -- total planet, total universe, total superuniverse, total grand universe. This totality attitude exists because the Trinity is the total of Deity and for many other reasons." 115:#7:2

"The ONENESS, the indivisibility, of Paradise Deity is existential, (always has been, is, and ever shall be)... and Absolute, " ... (highest level of spirit and material reality). There are three eternal personalizations of Deity, -- the Universal Father, the Eternal Son, and the Infinite Spirit, -- but in the Paradise Trinity they are ACTUALLY one Deity, undivided and indivisible. 640:#5:1

 See page 184:1, for the reason why there are only seven Master Spirits, and why the universe is operated in seven grand divisions, and why the number seven is basically fundamental in its organization and administration.

ESSAY QUESTIONS

MID-TERM EXAM — Class 2

ANSWER 1 OF THE FOLLOWING:

1. Several religious and cultural traditions assert that man long ago lived in a golden age from which he fell into his current evil and sinful estate. ESSAY QUESTIONS

1. You are participating in a panel discussion entitled: "God and the Sinner." The person who just spoke gave a lengthy and impassioned statement about the wrath of God against all of us — for we are all sinners and children of the devil. You have the opportunity to do some good. . . What will you say? (Don't forget that disagreeing with your predecessor does not, in and of itself, shed any light on the topic.)
2. While on your rounds at a local hospital, you come across a young mother who is recovering from an auto accident in which she was seriously injured and her young son was killed. She is bitter, and though she had always been a churchgoer, she is now lashing out at God for letting her son — her innocent son — die. . . How will you comfort her? She will not be open to logical argument, but needs spiritual insight.
3. You have been asked to present your views on "The Providence of God" before a group of first-year theological students. These students have never (with one exception — the guy in the last row) heard of The URANTIA Book; should you therefore mention it, you do so at your own peril. Your task is to make clear to them some concept of the way in which God works in the world to our benefit or detriment. How will you approach this topic? What points are essential? How will you impart advanced truth to these eager but somewhat backward and prejudiced students?

1. You are participating in a panel discussion entitled: "God and the Sinner." The person who just spoke gave a lengthy and impassioned statement about the wrath of God against all of us — for we are all sinners and children of the devil. You have the opportunity to do some good. . . What will you say? (Don't forget that disagreeing with your predecessor does not, in and of itself, shed any light on the topic.)
2. While on your rounds at a local hospital, you come across a young mother who is recovering from an auto accident in which she was seriously injured and her young son was killed. She is bitter, and though she had always been a churchgoer, she is now lashing out at God for letting her son — her innocent son — die. . . How will you comfort her? She will not be open to logical argument, but needs spiritual insight.
3. You have been asked to present your views on "The Providence of God" before a group of first-year theological students. These students have never (with one exception — the guy in the last row) heard of The URANTIA Book; should you therefore mention it, you do so at your own peril. Your task is to make clear to them some concept of the way in which God works in the world to our benefit or detriment. How will you approach this topic? What points are essential? How will you impart advanced truth to these eager but somewhat backward and prejudiced students?

1. You are participating in a panel discussion entitled: "God and the Sinner." The person who just spoke gave a lengthy and impassioned statement about the wrath of God against all of us — for we are all sinners and children of the devil. You have the opportunity to do some good. . . What will you say? (Don't forget that disagreeing with your predecessor does not, in and of itself, shed any light on the topic.)
2. While on your rounds at a local hospital, you come across a young mother who is recovering from an auto accident in which she was seriously injured and her young son was killed. She is bitter, and though she had always been a churchgoer, she is now lashing out at God for letting her son — her innocent son — die. . . How will you comfort her? She will not be open to logical argument, but needs spiritual insight.
3. You have been asked to present your views on "The Providence of God" before a group of first-year theological students. These students have never (with one exception — the guy in the last row) heard of The URANTIA Book; should you therefore mention it, you do so at your own peril. Your task is to make clear to them some concept of the way in which God works in the world to our benefit or detriment. How will you approach this topic? What points are essential? How will you impart advanced truth to these eager but somewhat backward and prejudiced students?
