THE COMMUNION-CONNECTION

What a man listens to is as large a statement as what he chooses to believe; perhaps they are the same statement. I have found the URANTIA BOOK to be the best UNIVERSAL TRANSLATOR for myths, religion, mysticism and science.

ITEM 1: MAN'S FIRST PHYSICAL ENCOUNTER WITH VISITORS; THE PLANETARY PRINCE'S CORPOREAL STAFF.

Supposedly 100 beings who after mortal death had progressed to at least their 8th stage of Pre-spirit development, without yet achieving divine-fusion, were selected for special assignment on Earth with our mortal ancestors. They were transported to Earth and provided with new physical bodies which were exempt from ordinary diseases but not to certain accidents of a mechanical nature. This rematerialization took place on our planet about 500,000 years ago during the advance of the 5th ice sheet of the Great Ice Age around the time that the 6 colored races had mutated from the aboriginal human stock.

The aboriginal human stock was called Andonite because they were the descendants of Andon and Fonta, the first human beings to evolve on Earth, roughly 1 million years ago (officially, 993,473 YBP or Years Before Present; P = 1988 A.D.). Anyway, 50 males and 50 females of the Andon and Fonta posterity, representing the survival of the best strains of that unique race, were chosen. With one or two exceptions, these Andonite contributors to the advancement of the race were strangers to one another. They were assembled from widely separated places by co-ordinating the inner-directives of each person's indwelling spirit with the guidance of their guardian angels. At the Planetary Prince's Headquarters the 100 human subjects were given into the hands of the highly skilled volunteer commission from the nearby universe of Avalon, and they directed the material extraction of a portion of the life plasm of these Andon descendants. This living material was then transferred to the bodies constructed for the use of the 100 volunteer-elects for rematerialization.

These transactions, together with the literal creation of special bodies for the Caligastia-one-hundred, gave origin to numerous legends, many of which subsequently became confused with the later traditions concerning the planetary installation of Adam and Eve. The entire transaction of repersonalization, from the arrival of the seraphic transports bearing the 100 volunteers until they became conscious 3-fold beings of the realm, consumed exactly 10 days.

Is this three-fold nature another triad? How were these beings 3-fold? (1) They were corporeal and relatively human, for they embodied the actual life plasm of one of the human races, the Andonic life plasm of Earth; (2) These 100 were material but superhuman beings, unique men and women of a high special order - they possessed souls of ascendant growth. [During the mortal life in the flesh the soul is of embryonic estate; it is born (resurrected) in the Pre-spirit life and experiences growth through the successive mansion worlds (as alluded to by Jesus)]. (3) The Caligastia-one-hundred were personally immortal, or undying. There circulated through their material forms the antidotal complements of the life currents of the system; and had they not lost contact with the life circuits through rebellion, they would have lived on indefinitely until the arrival of a subsequent Son of God, or until their sometime later release to resume their interrupted journey to Paradise. These antidotal complements of the system's life currents were derived from the fruit of the tree of life, a shrub of Edentia, the constellation capitol world.

What happened to the human abductees, those Earthlings chosen for this venture? Well, at the time that the 100 Andites contributed their human germ plasm to the Caligastia-crew, the Life Carriers introduced into their mortal bodies the complement of the system circuits; and thus these humans were enabled to live on concurrently with the staff, century after century, in defiance of physical death. Eventually, the 100 Andonites were made aware of their contribution to the new forms of their superiors, and these same 100 children of the Andon tribes were kept at headquarters as the personal attendants of the Prince's Corporeal Staff.

ITEM 2: SEX AND SUPERSEX.

The 100 members of the Prince's Staff were divided equally as to sex and in accordance with their previous mortal status. Each person of this group was capable of becoming coparental to some new order of physical being, but they had been carefully instructed to resort to parenthood only under certain conditions. It is customary for the corporeal staff of a planetary prince to procreate their successors sometime prior to returning from special planetary service. Usually, this is at or shortly after the time of arrival of the Planetary Adam and Eve.

These special beings therefore had little or no idea as to what type of material creature would be produced by their sexual union. And they never did know; before the time for such a step in the prosecution of their world work the entire regime was upset by rebellion, and those who later functioned in the parental role had been isolated from the life currents of the system.

Nevertheless, in conformity to their instructions the staff did not engage in sexual reproduction, but they did painstakingly study their personal constitutions, and they carefully explored every imaginable phase of intellectual (mind) and soul liaison. And it was during the 33rd year of their sojourn in the Dalamatian Headquarters City near the Persian Gulf that Number 2 and Number 7 of the 'Danite Group' accidentally discovered a phenomenon attendant upon the liaison of their soul-selves (supposedly nonsexual and non-material); and the result of this adventure proved to be the first of the Primary Midway Creatures. This new being was wholly visible to the planetary staff and their celestial associates but was not visible to the men and women of the various human tribes. Upon authority of Caligastia, the Planetary Prince, the entire corporeal staff undertook the production of similar beings, and all were successful, following the instructions of the pioneer Danite pair. Thus did the Prince's Staff eventually bring into being the original corps of 50,000 Primary Midwayers.

The Prince and his first assistant, Daligastia, did eventually go astray about 300,000 years into their mission when they joined the Lucifer rebellion. The rebellion was brought to Earth around the time of the advance of the last glacier in North America, and has had much to do with the subsequent march of events on Earth. It was indeed very difficult for beings such as angels and midwayers to even conceive of brilliant and trusted rulers like Caligastia and Daligastia going astray - and, yes, many were misled by their superiors, deceived by their trusted leaders. It was likewise easy to win the support of the primitive-minded evolutionary mortals.

Only 40 of the Caligastia-one-hundred remain loyal, and later these 40 were transferred to the system's headquarters world Jerusem to resume their Paradise journey. Surprisingly, more of the mortal attendants, 56 in fact, remained loyal. The 60 members of the Planetary Staff who went into rebellion chose Nod as their leader. They worked wholeheartedly for the rebel Prince but soon discovered that they were deprived of the sustenance of the system life circuits. They awakened to the fact that they had been degraded to the status of mortal beings. They were indeed superhuman but, at the same time, material and mortal. In an effort to increase their numbers, Daligastia ordered immediate resort to sexual reproduction, knowing full well that the original 60 and their 44 modified Andonite associates were doomed to suffer extinction by death sooner or later. After the fall of Dalamatia, the disloyal staff migrated to the north and the east. Their descendants were long known as the Nodites, and their dwelling place as "the land of Nod."

The presence of these extraordinary supermen and superwomen, stranded by rebellion and presently mating with the sons and daughters of earth, easily gave origin to those traditional stories of the gods coming down to mate with mortals. And thus originated the thousand and one legends of a mythical nature, but founded on the facts of the postrebellion days, which later found a place in the folk tales and traditions of the various peoples whose ancestors had participated in these contacts with the Nodites and their descendants.

ITEM 3: ARE THEY VISIBLE VISITORS OR INVISIBLE HOSTS, OR BOTH?
THE SECONDARY MIDWAYERS.

Nearly 165,000 years after the fall of Dalamatia, the Adamic dispensation began. Adam and Eve, the biologic uplifters for the mortal races of Earth, arrived 37,902 YBP (P = 1988 A.D.) by seraphic transport. All went well for over a hundred years, but Adam and Eve could not see their progress and grew impatient. Then, during the twilight hours of one autumn evening, influenced by flattery, enthusiasm, and great personal persuasion, Eve consented to add her own little scheme of world saving to the larger and more far-reaching divine plan. Instead of waiting as directed for the accrument of a large number of her violet race, Eve consented to bear a Nodite child herself in an attempt to more powerfully bind the Nodite people to the Garden. When Eve was cited for disobedience, Adam elected to repeat Eve's folly; with premeditation he sought out and consorted with a Nodite woman. But Adam was not beguiled; he knew exactly what he was about. He had deliberately chose to share the fate of Eve. He loved his mate with a supermortal affection, and the thought of the possibility of a lonely vigil on Earth without her was more than he could endure.

Adam and Eve were guilty of default but not of rebellion. They were reduced to mortal status and subsequently worked diligently until they died to preserve all the knowledge and wisdom they could for the planet. Eve lived 511 years and Adam 530 years. The civil rulers of the Adamites were derived hereditarily from the sons of the first garden. Adam's first son, Adamson (Adam ben Adam), founded a secondary center of the violet race to the north of the second Eden. Adamson's wife, Ratta, was the last pure-line descendant of the Prince's Staff. They had a total of 67 children, and every fourth child turned out to be unique and often invisible. There were 16 mutations in all: 8 males and 8 females. When these unique males and females mated, they gave origin to a brand new type of creature called a Secondary Midway Creature. Each of the 8 special couples produced 248 of these secondary semispirits, giving a total of 1,984 Secondary Midwayers. Of the 50,000 Primary Midwayers, 9,881 remained loyal (about 20%); Of the 1,984 Secondary Midwayers, 1,111 remained loyal (about 56%).

The vast majority of all human and superhuman beings who were victims of the Lucifer rebellion on Jerusem and the various misled planets of Satania have long since heartily repented of their folly. It is believed that all such penitents will in some manner be rehabilitated and restored to some phase of universe service after the adjudication of the Satania rebellion, which adjudication has so recently begun.

ITEM 4: THE RISEN CHRIST.

According to the 12 Earth Midwayers involved in presenting the Urantia Papers, they are not certain as to just what happened to Jesus of Nazareth during the period of a day and a half when he was supposed to be resting in Joseph of Arimathea's tomb. They know that his Thought Adjuster had long since been personalized and so maintained an existence apart from Jesus' mortal being. They conjecture that there must have been some spiritual reality in the experience of Jesus which was analogous to the spirit, nature, or soul, of the faith-growing mortals of the spheres. They think that the human or mortal consciousness of Jesus slept during the 36 hours. They feel that there is reason to believe that the human Jesus knew nothing of what transpired in the universe during this period. To the mortal consciousness there appeared no lapse of time; the resurrection of life followed the sleep of death as of the same instant. But the midwayers are not certain of all this.

Still, Jesus of Nazareth apparently died the same death on the cross as would any other mortal in the same circumstances. He died just before 3 o'clock Friday afternoon, April 7, A.D. 30 at the age of 35 years, 7 months and 17 days old. Then, at 2 minutes past 3 o'clock on Sunday morning, April 9, A.D. 30, the resurrected pre-Spirit form and personality of Jesus came forth from the tomb. And he did so absolutely of his own, without the slightest assistance of any of the celestial beings on the premises!

His material or physical body was not a part of the resurrected personality. When Jesus came forth from the tomb, his body of flesh remained undisturbed in the sepulchre. He emerged from the burial tomb without moving the stones before the entrance and without disturbing the seals of Pilate. He came forth in the very likeness of the soul-personalities of those who, as resurrected ascendant beings, emerge from the resurrection halls of the first mansion world of the local system capital. To spare the hosts of heaven the memory of enduring the sight of slow decay of the human form of the Creator, the chief of archangels requested permission to employ the process of accelerated time to the body to effect spontaneous decomposition. Permission was granted and the archangels and other orders of celestial personalities, with the aid of midwayers, proceeded to take possession of Jesus' physical body. The Secondary Midwayers rolled away the stones from the entrance to the tomb and the body of Jesus was then accorded the dignity and reverent disposal of near-instantaneous dissolution. Upon seeing the huge stone begin to roll away from the entrance of the tomb, apparently under its own accord (without any visible means to account for such motion), the Jewish guards and the Roman soldiers fled.

During all of his apparitions thereafter, the human eyes were enabled to see the Pre-spirit form of Jesus because of the special ministry of the power transformers and the midwayers in association with certain post-mortal soul-personalities that then accompanied Jesus. The Master made 19 soul-form apparitions in all before saying his last farewell to his apostles and taking leave of Earth. Between these apparitions Jesus was occupied with the soul-creatures on earth and with the affairs of the soul-form transition which he was experiencing on this world. [More than 1 million soul-personality directors and associates, together with transition mortals of various orders from the 7 Mansion Worlds of Satania, had come to Earth to participate in Jesus' soul-form transition.]

On Monday, April 10, A.D. 30, the Master's form was adjusted to the second stage of soul progression. Jesus made the transit to the 3rd stage of soul-form on Friday, April 14; to the 4th stage on Monday, the 17th; to the 5th stage on Saturday, the 22nd; to the 6th stage on Thursday, the 27th; to the 7th stage on Tuesday, May 2; to Jerusem citizenship on Sunday, the 7th; and he entered the embrace of the Most Highs of Edentia on Sunday, the 14th. As the Master progressed in the soul career, it became technically more and more difficult for the soul-creatures and their transforming associates to make the Master visible to mortal and material eyes. But while Jesus' friends could not readily recognize his soul-form when visible, they were never slow to identify his personality when he spoke to them.

It was about 7:45 Thursday morning, May 18, A.D. 30, on the western slope of Mt. Olivet, that Jesus said farewell and disappeared from the observation of his 11 silent and bewildered apostles. The Master had indeed completed his service of universe experience since he had already, in connection with his previous bestowals, experienced the full of life of the ascendant mortals of time and space from the sojourn on the headquarters of the constellation even on to, and through, the service of the headquarters of the superuniverse. So it was by the soul-form experiences that our Creator Son really finished and acceptably terminated his 7th and final universal bestowal.

From the Mount of Olives the Master went to Edentia by way of Jerusem where the Most Highs, under the observation of the Paradise Son, released Jesus of Nazareth from the soul-form state and, through the spirit channels of ascension, returned him to the status of Paradise Sonship and supreme sovereignty of his universe. And he literally ascended to the right hand of the Father, there to receive formal confirmation of his completed sovereignty of the Universe of Nebadon.
