Jesus taught . . .

God is our father and our friend. He is a loving, merciful, generous and forgiving parent who loves even His children who reject Him. God is not a stern and unforgiving judge. He would have us love and encourage each other even as He loves and supports us. This life on earth is important as the beginning point in an eternal career of being an ambassador of God's spiritual kingdom.

This gospel was so powerful in the minds and hearts of believing men and women that it did (and still can) cure the ill, comfort the afflicted, reassure the dying and inspire all who accept it to a life of joy and loving service.

The gospel according to Jesus is explained in detail in The URANTIA Book, pp. 1524-2097. The URANTIA Book discusses this and many other topics. Information on the back of this sheet will help you locate a copy.

The URANTIA Book has answers...

about Life After Death

Do dying people actually see angels? (p. 438)

Did Enoch of the Old Testament really avoid death? (pp. 1212; 514)

Will we remember this life? (p. 1235)

Will we recognize our friends and loved ones? (p. 1235)

What continuing life of growth and service awaits us after death? (pp. 530-540; 448-449)

The URANTIA Book discusses these and many other topics. Information on the back of this sheet will help you locate a copy.

The Life of Jesus

Are you interested in knowing about the life of JESUS in much greater detail than is related in the gospels? The URANTIA Book contains over 800 pages dealing with the life and teachings of Jesus and confirming his nature as God and man.

Who was Jesus? pp. 1323-5; 366-7.

What was Jesus' purpose on Earth? pp. 1323, 1331, 1543.

What is Jesus' gospel? pp. 1536-7.

Are Jesus and his message relevant to our lives today? pp. 2082-90; 2075-6.

The URANTIA Book discusses these and many other topics. Information on the back of this sheet will help you locate a copy.

Anthropology and Mythology

The URANTIA Book is a source of information on anthropology and mythology you might have missed. It has some intriguing ideas on the following questions:

Where and why did civilization originate? pp. 763-71; 741-53; 900-12.

What is the significance of the family in the origin and survival of civilization? pp. 913-4.

What might be the origin of myths about the gods descending from heaven to walk among men? p. 757-8.

What might be the sources of such legends as Atlantis, Mu, the great flood, etc.? p. 836; 874-5; 741-59; 826.

The URANTIA Book discusses these and many other topics. Information on the back of this sheet will help you locate a copy.

The Nature of God

The URANTIA Book has some insights you might find helpful on the nature of God:

Is God an impersonal force, a jealous and wrathful judge, or a loving father? pp. 38-43; 46-48.

Is God the Creator and Upholder of the material universe? pp. 46-8.

How does God express both justice and mercy? p. 38.

How can we be perfect even as God is perfect? pp. 21-22; 85-6; 1953; 295; 449.

The URANTIA Book discusses these and many other topics. Information on the back of this sheet will help you locate a copy.

The URANTIA Book is a 2097 page book discussing such diverse topics as science, religion, history, philosophy, life after death, personal spiritual growth, marriage and family. It is divided into four sections: The Central and Superuniverses, The Local Universe, The History of Urantia [Earth], and The Life and Teachings of Jesus. URANTIA Books are available at many local libraries or may be purchased through the following sources:

Prayer

The URANTIA Book says . . .

Talking to God is easy but listening for God's response takes practice. The effort of trying to be receptive to God's response is always beneficial because it brings spiritual and psychological rewards. The URANTIA Book answers many questions about prayer:

What are the various benefits of prayer? (pp. 996-999; 1002)

Can prayer bring material results? (pp. 998-999)

What are appropriate areas of concern for genuine spiritual prayer? (p. 999)

How can prayer become a dialogue instead of a monologue? (p. 997)

What is the difference between prayer and worship? (p. 998)

Does God speak to us? (pp. 1000-1001)

Why does it sometimes seem that God doesn't answer our prayers? (pp. 1848-1849)

The URANTIA Book has much to say about prayer, worship, communion and meditation which you may never have heard before. It could be a revelation for you. See pp. 994-1002, 1616, 1618-1624, 1638-1641, 1848-1849, 2089.

The URANTIA Book discusses these and many other topics. Information on the back of this sheet will help you locate a copy.

Anger

Current popular psychology would have us express our anger rather than stifle it inside us. The URANTIA Book goes beyond this level of understanding to reveal how detrimental anger is to the angry person and how we can rid ourselves of the anger reaction. Topics discussed include:

WHAT DOES ANGER REVEAL ABOUT THE ANGRY PERSON?

It reveals the extent to which our spiritual nature has not yet gained control of our minds and bodies. (p. 1673)

WHAT ARE THE EFFECTS OF ANGER IN OUR LIVES?

It saps body, mind and soul. (p. 1673)

HOW CAN WE OVERCOME OUR OWN ANGER?

Through learning the art of living in a loving state of mind. Through self-forgetfulness — unselfishness — we can become liberated from the bonds of anger. (pp. 1673; 1609-1610)

The URANTIA Book discusses these and many other topics. Information on the back of this sheet will help you locate a copy.

About the Sexes

The URANTIA Book says . . .

Men and women are so different from each other as to be, in effect, TWO DIFFERENT VARIETIES OF THE SAME SPECIES. Each is incapable of fully understanding the other. (p. 938)

These DIFFERENCES between men and women are A GREAT ADVANTAGE because the teamwork which results from the combination of two such unique individuals is far greater in effect than that of combinations of like sexes. (p. 938)

Women are at a distinct disadvantage in any struggle with men because mother love is an instinct, albeit one which can on occasion be thwarted by stronger acquired desires. But the world is not structured for competition between the sexes. Indeed, THE LAW OF THE UNIVERSE REWARDS COOPERATION BETWEEN THE SEXES RATHER THAN COMPETITION. (pp. 932, 938)

Even beyond our material lives our surviving personalities will carry the complementary TRAITS OF MALE AND FEMALE. Beneficial stimulation, encouragement and cooperation between the sexes WILL CONTINUE INTO ETERNITY. (p. 939)

The URANTIA Book discusses these and many other topics. Information on the back of this sheet will help you locate a copy.

Need Some Help Getting Through the Difficulties of Life?

The URANTIA Book describes some attitudes and techniques which might prove helpful:

Conflict and difficult decisions should be cheerfully and eagerly accepted because it is out of these that new insights into meanings and values are found and out of these that new and better reaction patterns replace older and inferior habits.

The feeling of being important saps our energy. Recognizing and maintaining our own ego dignity absorbs much of our energy. If we consider what we are doing as important rather than ourselves as important, several things can be done as easily as one.

For more information, see the following pages in The URANTIA Book:

Attitudes which increase our life difficulties: p. 555; p. 1674.

The difficulties of life are useful to us: p. 51.

Conflict aids spiritual growth: p. 1097.

We have spiritual help for overcoming difficulties:
p. 2065.

Helpful techniques for solving common problems:
pp. 1773-1774.

What our attitude toward difficulties should be:
pp. 555; 1096; 381.

The URANTIA Book discusses these and many other topics. Information on the back of this sheet will help you locate a copy.

Creationism and Evolution

The URANTIA Book describes a process of creation which reconciles creationism with evolution. It discusses the following topics:

IS THERE CONTRADICTION BETWEEN THE CONCEPT OF GOD THE CREATOR AND EVOLUTION CULMINATING IN MAN?

God used the technique of evolution to create man. (pp. 396-405)

HOW COULD GOD USE EVOLUTION TO CREATE HUMAN BEINGS?

Evolution is a part of God's plan for the progress of life over time and it is an even greater miracle than the traditional concept of the six-day creation. A greater miracle because God encoded all the potentials for man into the original evolutionary life patterns. (pp. 664-717; 730-740)

WAS THERE EVER A MISSING LINK?

Evolution occurs in a series of natural but sudden mutations so that there are no transitional stages. (p. 669)

WHAT WERE THE FIRST MAN AND WOMAN LIKE?

They were capable of admiration, vanity, worship, pity, shame, reproach, love, hate, jealousy and a feeling of being more than animal. (pp. 707-708; 711)

WHAT MAKES MAN ULTIMATELY MORE THAN AN INTELLIGENT ANIMAL?

Will, the capacity for loving and seeking God. (pp. 709-710)

The URANTIA Book discusses these and many other topics. Information on the back of this sheet will help you locate a copy.

A CHALLENGE — JUDGE IT FOR YOURSELF

After the bestowal of Christ 2,000 years ago, mankind was given the Spirit of Truth so he may discern truth in any form. Now, a new revelation has come upon this planet in the form of a book. This book is The URANTIA Book. What a challenge for all mankind! Truth seekers, meet the challenge and discern for yourselves. Is this revelation what it claims to be? We've found it to be the answer to our seeking — it definitely struck the truth chord of our beings and had the warm, comfortable feel of coming home. ## The URANTIA Book . . .

has some reflections on PHILOSOPHY which have helped many people to understand their lives better. The following are a few such topics:

WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF LIFE HERE ON EARTH?

The pleasures and satisfactions of our material world and our human associations are here for our education, benefit and enjoyment, but these are not the ultimate goals of life. The spiritual is the eternal foundation of a life which extends far beyond our years here. We are potentially eternal creatures of a vast universe. We are destined for a life of continuing challenge and satisfying service. (pp. 1096; 1094-5; 1229; 1237; 1239-1240)

WHY DOES THE WORLD CONTAIN EVIL AND INJUSTICE?

A free will choice cannot truly be free unless there is a contrast to good which the person may envision and choose. (pp. 615-616; 51; 1429)

WHY IS ORDER AND PURPOSE REFLECTED THROUGHOUT THE UNIVERSE?

The universe is a creation of God and all reality reflects His perfection and beauty. That imperfection which provides man with his free will choices constitutes only unreality. (pp. 52-53)

The URANTIA Book discusses these and many other topics. Information on the back of this sheet will help you locate a copy.
