INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE 2002

REVELATION IN ACTION

YMCA Conference Center Estes Park, Colorado

June 30 to July 6

Dear Friends,

The Urantia Book Fellowship is pleased to announce International Conference 2002 (IC02) to be held at the YMCA Conference Center in Estes Park, Colorado, from Sunday, June 30 to Saturday, July 6, 2002. This event will bring together over a thousand students of The Urantia Book for a 7 day 6 night experience of study, fellowship, worship, celebration, recreation and entertainment.

The theme for IC02 is Revelation in Action. Each conference day will focus on aspects of our eternal career as described in the four parts of The Urantia Book. An overview of the program is provided on the other side of this letter.

IC02 will feature over one hundred presentations and workshops on a wide variety of Urantia Book subjects, along with frequent opportunities to engage in prayer and worship with readers from around the world. There will also be great parties, outstanding entertainment, refreshing recreation, and much more.

All readers of The Urantia Book and their families (including non-readers) are warmly invited to attend. A full range of programs and activities are available for all age groups and interests. Estes Park, the site of the conference, boasts some of the most beautiful scenery in the United States. Set among the Colorado Rocky Mountains, immediately adjacent to Rocky Mountain National Park, the conference facility has hundreds of acres of pristine Colorado woodlands. It is a perfect location for a family vacation.

Registration and other conference information for IC02 can be found on the Fellowship's website www.urantiabook.org. Registration materials will also be sent shortly by mail.

For now, please send us an email at IC@urantiabook.org and let us know you are coming. Your name will be placed on the IC02 mail (and email) list to receive the most timely conference news and information. We look forward to seeing you this summer at IC02.

The Urantia Book calls us to an eternal adventure of living and loving. The book provides the vision, God provides the resources, and we are asked for the faith and willingness to heed the call. The International Conference in Estes Park, Colorado, offers each of us an opportunity to deepen our sense of community, to study The Urantia Book's teachings, to share our faith and to return to our homes empowered for loving service. Please join us this summer for "Revelation in Action!"
