Dear Dr. Sprunger:

I note from your last letter that you haven't your summer schedule settled yet. I suppose I will hear from you when you do.

In regard to your enclosures about different variations, as quoted in the Urantia Book etc. I don't think such somatic problems are worth much consideration. It is evident that the midwayers have their own version of the Old and New Testaments. Furthermore, in rendering quotations, sometimes you might speak precisely and at other times, in substance, and in that way there might appear a slight difference.

About the creation of Creator Sons it could be said in general that all of these Paradise Sons are created by the Trinity, but when being explicit they would name which two members, or all three, created a specific Son.

I am working these days on a glossary to appear in the back of the Index.

Sincerely,

William S. Sadler
