Dear Dr. Sadler:

Thank you for your kind letter. Would it be possible to meet with you next Monday, February 18th? If so would you suggest a time. If Monday is not suitable, would you suggest another day.

My argument for the type of condensation which I have worked out in contrast to one using my own words and expression is that such a condensation has aspects of communication such as style, spirit and terminology which is characteristic of the Urantia Book itself and therefore more valuable and less misleading. Such a condensation could be copyrighted and the circulation controlled. Thus there would be no more danger than in a document expressed in one's own words.

Let us know when we might meet with you.

Sincerely yours,

Meredith

Dear Dr. Sprunger:

Just got your letter of the 11th. Next Monday is already pretty well filled up for seeing you. I could save Tuesday afternoon from about 1:30 on, but Thursday would be the best day -- you could come and go at your own choice as I do not have office work on Thursday.

I will keep Tuesday afternoon open as it now stands until I hear from you, but I would much prefer that you come on Thursday, have lunch with us, and then we could have the day to talk over many things. Let me hear from you.

Sincerely,

William S. Sadler
