Dear Clyde:

This letter concerns our telephone conversation about a week ago, regarding John Hay's request for a 50% discount on purchases of the Concordex from you, when such purchases are intended for resale to retail bookstores, rather than to individual buyers.

In order to provide us with this additional discount on recently made sales that we made of this kind, you asked that I send you a list of the purchasing bookstores. They are as follows. Numbers in parentheses indicate the number of books sold.
