Mr. Lee Armstrong

Dear Lee:

Congratulations on being elected President of the First URANTIA Society of Los Angeles.

You probably know what your responsibilities as president are, but it is the custom to send a list of "Duties of a President of a URANTIA Society," indicating the responsibilities to the Brotherhood. These do not cover your duties to your society.

In addition to the "Duties," enclosed is a list of the members of the General Council, officers, and committee members of the Brotherhood, also a list of officers of other societies, and a list of Field Representatives.

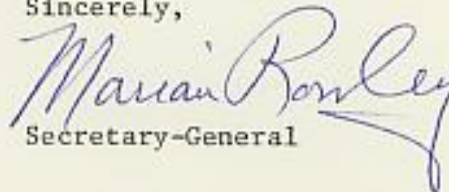

If you don't have an up-to-date copy of the Brotherhood constitution, please let me know and I will send one. It is important that you have a copy.

As I believe you know, your society is entitled to buy URANTIA Books at a 40% discount for 10 or more up to 245 a year.

The concentric-circle pins are available for members only at $21.00 each. We need to have the name and address of the person who is buying the pin for our records.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to call John or me.

Sincerely,

Secretary-General

Marian Rowley
