Dear Martin,

I have enclosed the first ten outlines of Part IV of The URANTIA Book that have been compiled primarily by the Boulder School for Students of The URANTIA Book as an aid in their study. Until now we have limited their use specifically to the students, but we have had an increasing number of request for copies. Because of this, we would like to submit these to Urantia Foundation for your review and approval prior to filling these requests.

The remainder of the outlines for Part IV of The URANTIA Book are in process of being typed and follow the same format as those enclosed. If you wish to have the completed work prior to your review please notify me and as soon as they become available I will forward them to you. As you can see from the size of this work, we will not be able to offer this to readers gratis, but at a price that will cover the cost of printing. No profit is intended.

The students at the school have spent many man hours on this project and we of the Rocky Mountain URANTIA Society of Denver are very proud of their accomplishment. Their purpose was to create a work that would be a service to all URANTIA Book readers, not just to keep it to themselves. This follows the Nebadon School teaching method where students are called upon to be teachers to those just behind them.

I hope you have a joyous Christmas holiday and look forward to hearing from you in the near future.

Sincerely,

John Roper
President, The Rocky Mountain URANTIA Society of Denver
