COLORADO CONFERENCE

URANTIA

There will be a conference at Paul Hummel Camp on September 22 through September 24 held by the Boulder Study Group. People are encouraged to arrive after dinner on Friday evening. This conference will have a format of events similar to those at the Lake Geneva International Brotherhood Conference which many of you attended.

Saturday Morning, September 23, 1978

Errol and Rochelle Strider: "Fear and Faith" - a workshop experience.

Stan and Ruth Hartman: "Healing"

The morning sessions will run from 9:30 to 11:50 a.m. and will break just before noon for a prayer-worship experience in the chapel with the hope of experiencing the space broadcasts as they arrive on the planet as well as sharing the presence of our Father with our brothers and sisters.

12:30 to 3:00 p.m. - Lunch and Free Time

Saturday Afternoon - 3:00 - 5:30 p.m.

Buck and Arlene Weimer: "Teaching Ethics and Morals to Children"

Linda and Jim McNelly: "Adam and Eve"

Jane and John Roper: "The Farewell Discourse Paper" (180)

Saturday Evening - 5:30 - 8:00 p.m.

Dinner - Worship Experience in the Chapel (at 7:00 p.m.) - Volleyball - Free Time.

8:30 p.m.: Evening entertainment with a program by Creative Spirit (Errol and Rochelle Strider), a slide show by George Samaras and Terry Kruger, and comedy sketches by Jim McNelly and the Reversion Directors.

11:00 p.m. (?) - Telescope and stargazing, campfire, etc.

Sunday Morning, September 24, 1978

Mo Siegal: "Introducing the URANTIA BOOK to New People"

12:00 p.m. - Worship

12:30 - 2:00 p.m. - Lunch and Free Time

2:00 p.m. - Terry Kruger: "The Morontia Life"

Camp Information

There is minimal privacy dormitory space for 50 persons and space for camping in tents or vehicles on the grounds (first come first serve basis). There are bathhouses equipped with toilets and showers. The camp has an outdoor chapel, an observatory, dining hall, basketball, volleyball, horseshoes and plenty of woods to explore. There is no room fee for infants and children under 12. Bring your own porta-cribs.

Meals: The Boulder Study Group will provide breakfasts for both mornings (Saturday and Sunday). We will provide a vegetarian dinner on Saturday (bring your own lunch), and we will provide a leftover lunch on Sunday. Bring your own food for snacks, etc.

Fees: There will be a $3 cover charge per adult to cover miscellaneous expenses and to raise money for the treasury of the Boulder Study Group.

Dormitory cost: $3 per person each night
Camping: $1.50 per person each night
Food: $2.00 per person ($1.00 per child)

Children's Activities

There will be scheduled programs of interest to children 5 through 13 on Saturday morning, afternoon and Sunday morning. There will be babysitters for hire ($.50/hour) available Saturday and Sunday morning for infants and children under 5. The parents are responsible for the cost of this child care. The afternoon child care responsibility for small children is with parents to co-op with other parents, take their children with them to afternoon study groups with permission of leaders, or make other arrangements.

Camp Hummel: 449-3293

Any questions, etc., call Jim McNelly (666-8395) or Jane Roper (494-7435).
