Arrangements to get persons to the airport for their return flights home, (there is no other way even Matson does not carry passengers, except by freighter)

RSVP to 98-809 Olena Street. AIEA Hawaii (Honolulu County) 96701-3436. FAX (808) 486-8611 (five rings to tone) or (808) 488 4653 Message Machine. The first 88 persons have reservations, (first in first place) However the Papers tell us many times those who are first will be last, but not in this case.

I can accommodate 18 persons in my home if they bring sleeping bags, towels and/or blankets, bring swimming gear, have 2 washers 2 dryers, lots of Condos available for 30-50 dollars a day, lots of hotel space available, lots of rental cars, much space for on and off street parking. Other than lunches and dinners and breakfast, I shall cover all the costs of the Luau (Germain's of Hawaii, you will be bussed there) So don't bring a lot of cash, although you may want to spend your time doing other things, try and be with us. The rules are simple:

NO DRUGS, and we shall follow Cymboyton's rules as in the URMIA Lectures, (Page 1487) these were acceptable to the Caravan Leader who we all know and love.

Aloha from Hawaii
