TUESDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1981 AT 7:30 sharp

Hosts: Florence and Gard - - 1651 So. Beverly Glen Blvd. # 1 -Los Angeles 24

Dear Friends:

We have begun our exploration of the topics "Choosing a Mate" and "Seven Love Stories in the URANTIA Book." Next time, at our third meeting there will be group participation. Rather than taking your time and mine in telephone calls I am assigning some topics for a starter. If for any reason you are unable to do this please call me - -SOON.

Please present the following topics in your own words or by reading selected excerpts appropriate for our purposes. If possible have it in written form(rough notes O.K.) to hand to me after your presentation. Approximately ten minutes each.

Andon and Fonta- Gard Jameson

Adam and Eve - - -Lee Armstrong

Adamson and Ratta-Janelle Balnicki

Mary and Joseph } Roselyn Benschoten

Miriam and Jacob }

Rebecca and Jesus - Jacqueline Dickson

Ruth and David Zebedee-Joanne Hunt

*About ten minutes
for each presentation*

Invite discussion after each presentation. This is a participative type of session, designed to emphasize the spiritual and character qualities which held these marriages together.

I would welcome your suggestions and ideas about the outline of content of our course and of our planned book. I handed this out last time on a pink sheet. That outline is tentative and subject to change. One suggestion which I certainly have accepted is to add a chapter on. . . what shall we call it- -"The Blended Family" or "The Reintegrated Family"? Anyway it is very much with us as 41% of those divorced re-marry very soon. The many deep and important problems concerning the children need to be considered so we can offer help to dedicated parents.
