

Learning to have Faith
is like learning to swim.

I am not going in..
I can't see the bottom...
...what if there are octopussys 'n' monsters ..

Unreasonable fear of the Unknown

The big-toe faithtest..... who is testing whom?

"Oh Ye Of Little Faith!"

Look Ma, I'm swimming !!

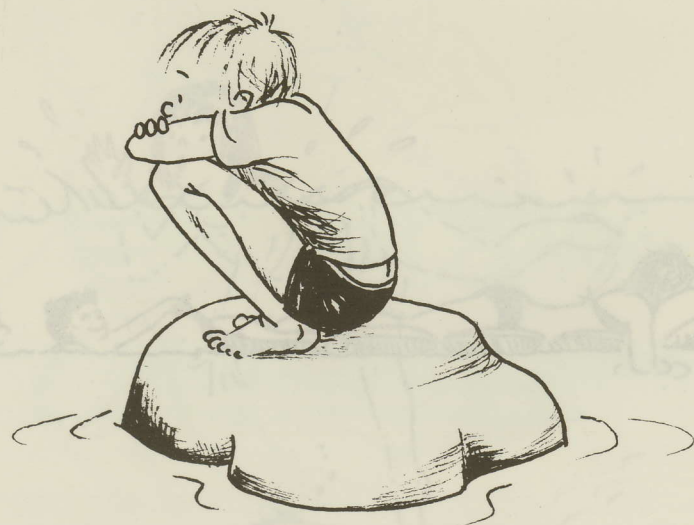

Somebody may believe you.....

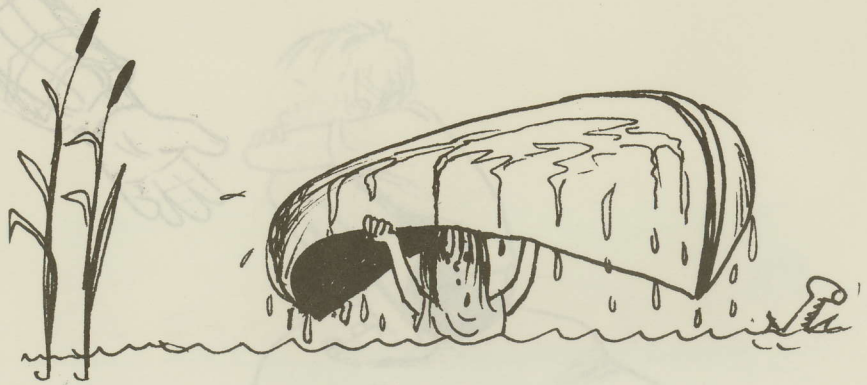

..and you will end up in way over your head

"Look Ma, I'm swimming"

"No man is an island ;
unto himself!"

Opportunities for exercising a small and budding faith come sometimes

when you least expect it

.... unexpectedly and suddenly and when there is nothing else to lay a firm hold on.

...well, it is just not logical for man to swim. If it were, man would have been born with aquatic Lungs, webbed feet and hands, but since he is not, common sense demands that he remains on Terra Firma. It can affect your mind, you know, all these notions of swimming.

Learn from those who have knowledge,

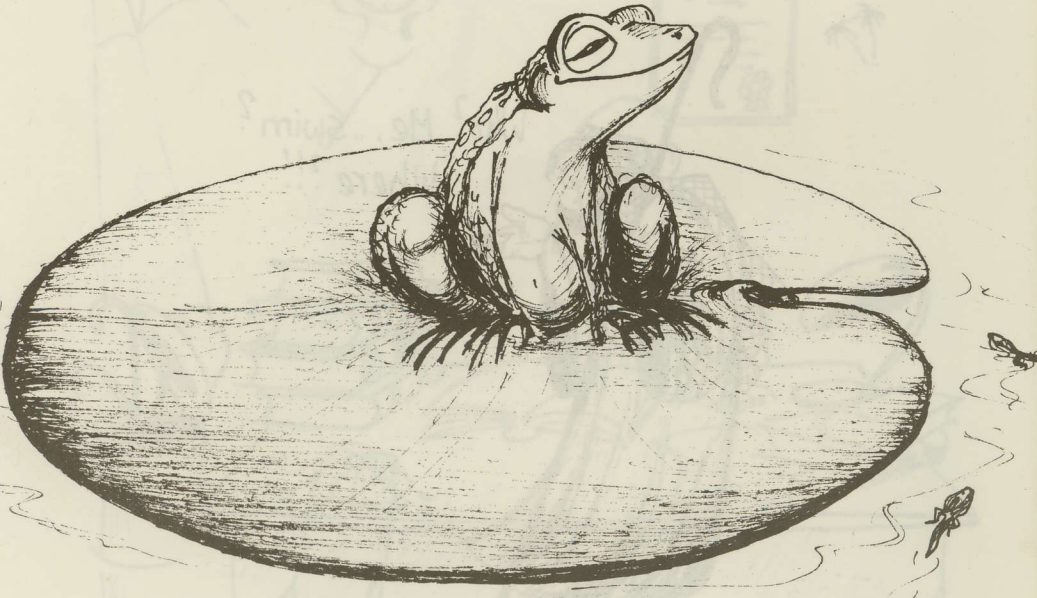

Who? Me, ...swim?
Where?!!

...preferably those with personal experience, - wherever you may find them,

" With God all things are possible! "

Copyright © 1982 Christel Parick

...no matter how lowly and humble!

" Be you perfect even as I am perfect !"

Copyright
© 1982. Christel Garrick