

LOOK TO THE STARS:

Look to the stars, O man,
The mirrors of the Infinite,
And know that all throughout
The All-encircling Mind of God
A universe of universes
Teems with your spirit-brothers!

This is your home and habitat,
O children of the Highest:
The wide-expanding cosmos lies,
A door-mat to the threshold
Of the Infinite, the Eternal One,
Unmanifest, sans time.

Our homelands, time and space, do thrill
With expectations boundless!
An unpredicted family love
Encircuits every God-born son
And fills the circling, numberless throngs
With praises and imaginings!

O man, within your heart there lives
A fragment of Infinity!
The Source and Center of all the worlds
Is a Fount within your soul!
Your Eternal Rock of Agelessness
Shall one day fuse you unto Foreverness!

Your own Perfection Particle, brighter than any sun,
Shall lead you through the star-fields,
While the shimmering orbs of the sweeping sectors
Reflect the shining radiance
Of your Celestial Father, who thereby
Illuminates your path to Spirit Luminosity!

The pulsing cosmos with your kindred thrives,
And drifts through agelong eons
To fulfill the final finishing
Of the Fathomless Father's first
Creative destiny: the perfecting of
All time-space things and beings!

The cosmic choruses swell with every Age's turning,
Intoning the celestial melodies
Of Intertwining Destinies and Cosmic Unity!
"Peace to the worlds! To all good will!
Praise to the Father on high!" The harmonies
Of Brotherhood surround our Paradise home!

The Finite Deity hums, through space vibrations,
The cosmic hymns of Courage,
Striving, Aspiration, Valour, and Attainment!
The finite family peoples every star,
And feeds its love of Beauty, Goodness, Truth,
With hopes of bright Havona's flawlessness!

A shudder through the heavenly systems flies,
And Evolution leaps!
Unique Urantia joins the choirs
Of its faithful, celestial sister spheres!
The Sovereigns of Satania again
Extol the Universe Master Son!

Calamitous Nebadon circumvents
All possible future strife!
Reclaiming all its Prodigals,
The Universe Family gleams with Joy,
And speeds to its inclusion among
The Settled Sectors of Superuniverse Seven!

Look to the stars, O man,
Your Father's jewels of light and life!
All is but prelude and brilliant augury
To the Ageless Age of All's Infinity!
Supreme and Ultimate, Absolute--
I AM indwells you now!

Greater than the heavens' breadth,
In some Unbegun, Unending Day,
Shall your heart reach around the rim,
Of Infinity's circumference!
Child of the Father, thus, so great
Is Limitless Love, is Endless Life!
