Dear Meredith:

Your very interesting letter came today and surprised me no end. Only four or five years ago, you were hesitant about endorsing spiritual healing, until you had investigated it more fully. I have been waiting for that endorsement. If you made it at some time, I never heard of it.

Now here you are venturing out far beyond anything that spiritual healing would require of you, and in a realm where it will be still less possible to verify facts beyond those which you yourself may personally experience.

However, I am not criticizing. Rather am I commending you on your adventurous spirit. I shall join you in the adventure and have already sent in my order for the Urantia Book. I am open to anything God may want to reveal to me, which the Holy Spirit will approve. If we believe in Jesus' word that he still had many things to reveal to his disciples which they could not bear, and if we believe in the gift of the Holy Spirit, "the word of knowledge", then we dare never close our minds to anything that may seem new and different from that to which we have held in the past.

As to the other books mentioned on the additional sheet, I have read many of them. In fact, I attended the Fifth Spiritual Seminar on Healing this fall at Mainright House, Rye, N. Y. and know, or rather heard and saw Eileen Garrett.

Have a meeting at church and must leave at once.

Sincerely yours,

Dick
