Dear Meredith,

I've been meaning to drop you a note all summer long to tell you how much I enjoyed getting in for you at Grace Church back in July, but time has flown on me till now it is well on in August. It was a pleasure to be before your congregation and I appreciate their excellent response. The honorarium was indeed generous, for which I am grateful.

While it is on my mind, I should like to pay you the $10.<sup>00</sup> for Urantra, which I have decided to keep. Though I cannot be persuaded that it is any more authoritative or authentic than the Apocrypha, I find it interesting reading. I hope you have had an excellent summer.

Kind regards,
Yours truly,
