

I sent this to Warren as my suggestion to replace Meredith's "history."

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE URANTIA MOVEMENT

Because of numerous inquiries which have been received, it has seemed necessary to make a brief statement regarding the origin of the Urantia movement.

The Urantia Book tells of its own origin and the page references appear on the back of the paper jacket. From this list we quote the following:

"In the contacts made with the mortal beings of the material worlds, such as with the subject through whom these communications were transmitted, the midway creatures are always employed. They are an essential factor in such liaisons of the spiritual and the material levels." p. 865.

"It was the work of this secondary group (midwayers), ably seconded by certain of the primary corps, that brought about the co-ordination of personalities and circumstances on Urantia which finally induced the planetary celestial supervisors to initiate those petitions that resulted in the granting of the mandates making possible the series of revelations of which this presentation is a part." p. 865.

"On many worlds the better adapted secondary midway creatures are able to attain varying degrees of contact with the Thought Adjusters of certain favorably constituted mortals through the skillful penetration of the minds of the latter's indwelling. (And it was by just such a fortuitous combination of cosmic adjustments that these revelations were materialized in the English language on Urantia.)" p. 1258.

"The Adjuster of the human being through whom this communication is being made enjoys such a wide scope of activity chiefly because of this human's almost complete indifference to any outward manifestations of the Adjuster's inner presence; it is indeed fortunate that he remains consciously quite unconcerned about the entire procedure. He holds one of the highly experienced Adjusters of his day and generation, and yet his passive reaction to, and inactive concern toward, the phenomena associated with the presence in his mind of this versatile Adjuster is pronounced by the guardian of destiny to be a rare and fortuitous reaction." p. 1208-9.

The subject through whom these papers were transmitted and the very small group which had the responsibility for the protection of the manuscript are anonymous and will remain so. It was the intention of the superhuman authors of these papers that no human name should be attached to this revelation and the group has proceeded accordingly. The revelation must stand on its own declarations and teachings.

The phenomenon of the transmittal of the material through the human mind into English was not fully understood by anyone who had any connection with it, but it may be stated that it is not similar to other known types of psychic performance, such as hypnotism, automatic writing, clairvoyance, trances, spirit mediumship, telepathy, double personality, or anything else of this sort.

While the papers were in manuscript form, a somewhat larger group was permitted to read and study the papers. It was this group which provided the money to have the plates made and these plates were presented to the Urantia Foundation, a non-profit trust, which was organized on January 11, 1950, by a Declaration of Trust under the laws of the State of Illinois. The Foundation owns the international copyright on the book and is responsible for protecting the text and for arranging for the reprints of the book and for translations. The Urantia Book was published by the ^{Urantia} Foundation on October 12, 1955.

Begin here - Although it is clear that the purpose of the Urantia revelation is not to start a new religion or religious denomination, the Urantia group recognized that some sort of fraternal organization was sure to grow out of the teachings of the Urantia Book. Accordingly a group of 36 people assembled in Chicago on January 2, 1955, and organized the Urantia Brotherhood. The constitution of the Urantia Brotherhood designates it as a voluntary, locally autonomous, fraternal organization. Provision is made for chartering local societies and fostering study groups. To date a number of such groups have been organized throughout the country and world.

Since the Urantia Brotherhood is not a legal corporation, the Urantia Brotherhood Corporation was chartered as a non-profit organization of the State of Illinois on October 25, 1955. This corporation is the fiscal agent of the Brotherhood and in a general way takes care of the varied financial and legal interests of the Brotherhood.

In December 1959 the Internal Revenue Bureau of the United States government ruled that the Urantia Foundation, the Urantia Brotherhood, and the Urantia Brotherhood Corporation were exempt from paying income taxes, and that any contributions made to these organizations are deductible from the income taxes of such donors.

Although the world is not ready for the book at this time, permission to publish was given so that study groups could be formed to train teachers and leaders and so that men of means might be interested to provide for translation into other languages. This work is now being carried on, not by advertising and promotion at the present time, but largely by personal contact, which has proved to be more effective.

In conclusion, it should be emphasized that while the facts concerning the historicity of the Urantia Book have some limited significance, the quality and importance of the philosophical and religious insights of the Urantia Book can ~~only~~ be ascertained only by evaluating the content of the book. Origin or authorship does not establish the worth of a book, a poem, or a piece of art. Its worth must rest solely on its own intrinsic merit. 7

*Handwritten note: I sent this to Warren (Kulieke) as my suggestion to replace Meredith's (Sprunger's)
history.*

A Brief History about the Urantia Movement

Because of numerous inquires which have been received, it has seemed necessary to make a brief statement regarding the origin of the Urantia movement.

The Urantia Book tells of its own origin and the page references appear on the back of the paper jacket. From this list we quote the following:

“In the contacts made with the mortal beings of the material worlds, such as with the subject through whom these communications were transmitted, the midway creatures are always employed. They are an essential factor in such liaisons of the spiritual and the material levels.” p. 865.

“It was the work of this secondary group (midwayers), ably seconded by certain of the primary corps, that brought about the co-ordination of personalities and circumstances on Urantia which finally induced the planetary celestial supervisors to initiate those petitions that resulted in the granting of the mandates making possible the series of revelations of which this presentation is a part.” p. 865.

“On many worlds the better adapted secondary midway creatures are able to attain varying degrees of contact with the Thought Adjusters of certain favorably constituted mortals through the skillful penetration of the minds of the latter's indwelling. (And it was by just such a fortuitous combination of cosmic adjustments that these revelations were materialized in the English language on Urantia. “ p. 1258.

“The Adjuster of the human through whom this communication is being made enjoys such a wide scope of activity chiefly because of this human's almost complete indifference to any outward manifestations of the Adjuster's inner presence; it is indeed fortunate that he remains consciously quite unconcerned about the entire procedure. He holds on of the highly experienced Adjusters of his day and generations, and yet his passive reaction to, and inactive concern toward, the phenomena associated with the presence in his mind of this versatile Adjuster is pronounced by the guardian of destiny to be a rare and fortuitous reaction.” P 1208-9.

The subject through whom the papers were transmitted and the very small group which had the responsibility for the protection of the manuscript are anonymous and will remain so. It was the intention of the superhuman authors of these papers that no human name should be attached to this revelation and the group has proceeded accordingly. The revelation must stand on its own declarations and teachings.

The phenomenon of the transmittal of the material through the human mind into English was not fully understood by anyone who had any connection with it, but it may be stated that it is not similar to other known types of psychic performance, such as hypnotism, automatic writing, clairvoyance, trance, spirit mediumship, telepathy, double personality, or anything else of this sort.

While the papers were in manuscript form, a somewhat larger group was permitted to read and study the papers. It was this group which provided the money to have the plates made and these plates were presented to the Urantia Foundation, a non-profit trust, which was organized on January 11, 1950, by a Declaration of Trust under the laws of the State of Illinois. The Foundation owns the international copyright on the book and is responsible for protecting the text and for arranging for the reprints of the book and for translations. The Urantia Book was published by the [Urantia] Foundation on October 12, 1955.

(A note is inserted in the left margin that says, "Begin here.")

Although it is clear that the purpose of the Urantia revelation is not start a new religion or religious denomination, the Urantia group recognized that some sort of fraternal organization was sure to grow out of the teachings of the Urantia Book. Accordingly a group of 36 people assembled in Chicago on January 2, 1955, and organized the Urantia Brotherhood. The constitution of the Urantia Brotherhood designates it as a voluntary, locally autonomous, fraternal organization. Provision is made for chartering local societies and fostering study groups. To date a number of such groups have been organized throughout the country and world.

Since the Urantia Brotherhood is not a legal corporation, the Urantia Brotherhood Corporation was chartered as a non-profit organization of the State of Illinois on October 25, 1955. This corporation is the fiscal agent of the Brotherhood and in a general way takes care of the varied financial and legal interests of the Brotherhood.

In December 1959 the Internal Revenue Bureau of the United States government ruled that the Urantia Foundation, the Urantia Brotherhood, and the Urantia Brotherhood Corporation were exempt from paying income taxes, and that any contributions made to these organizations are deductible from the income taxes of such donors.

Although the world is not ready for the book at this time, permission to publish was given so that study groups could be formed to train teachers and leaders and so that men of means might be interested to provide for translation into other languages. This work is now being carried on, not by advertising and promotion at the present time, but largely by personal contact, which has proved to be more effective.

In conclusion, it should be emphasized that while the facts concerning the historicity of the Urantia Book have some limited significance, the quality and importance of the philosophical and religious insights of the Urantia Book can be ascertained only by evaluating the content of the book. Origin or authorship does not establish the worth of a book, a poem, or a piece of art. Its worth must rest solely on its own intrinsic merit.

*[This is a transcription of the original paper which was too light to read without the aid of a computer program that gave it a blue background and made the text more visible. It has been transcribed as a service to those who cannot decipher the original text.
VLJClark 08April2007]*