SOME ONE CARES FOR YOUR SOUL.

BY W. S. SADLER.

"I looked on my right hand, and beheld, but there was no man that would know me; refuge failed me; no man cared for my soul." Ps. 142:4.

Dear reader, is your refuge failing? Have you looked on this hand and on that hand for help, only to be disappointed? Have you looked for friends, and failed to find them? Are you saying in your heart, "No one cares for my soul"? God speaks to you in this hour of darkness and trial, saying, "Casting all your care upon Him; for He careth for you." 1 Peter 5:7. Jesus, the One who left the glories of heaven to come to earth and die for you, cares for you. He invites you just now. "Come unto Me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." Matt. 11:28. "Cast thy burden upon the Lord, and He shall sustain thee." Ps. 55:22.

God loves you. It is by His love and power that we exist moment by moment, always ever seeking to bring the sinner back to the path of right-doing. Every unholly thought and every sinful act exceedingly grieves and pains your Redeemer. While men profess His name they sin against Him. He says: "Thou hast made Me to serve with thy sins, thou hast wearied Me with thine iniquities. I, even I, am He that blotteth out thy transgressions, for Mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins." Isa. 43:24, 25. If you will only yield your heart to God and come to Christ, all your sins will be blotted out and remembered no more. "Wherefore He is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by Him, seeing He ever liveth to make intercession for them." Heb. 7:25.

{ Yes, God loves you, no matter what your condition is. He gave His Son, Jesus, to die for you, just as you are; so if you will only believe in Jesus, you can come to Him right now, just as you are. Jesus, the Saviour of sinners, will receive you with outstretched and loving arms. Will you not come?

"In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto Me, and drink." John 7:37. "And him that cometh to Me I will in nowise cast out." John 6:37. In your heart the Spirit of God is pleading with you, and the very moment you choose to do right, the battle will be turned; in His strength and by His grace the victory will be yours. He says: "If there be first a willing mind, it is accepted." 2 Cor. 8:12. "Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." Rom. 10:13. "He that looketh upon men, and if any say, I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it profited me not; He will deliver his soul from going into the pit, and his life shall see the light." Job 33:27, 28.

Do you realize that your soul is going down every day farther and further into a pit of darkness? As you look into the future do you see only darkness, discouragement, defeat and despair? Surely then this promise must be for you. Will you not accept God's Word with simple, childlike faith, believe His promises, claim them for yourself, and rejoice in the freedom and liberty of His salvation? "If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed." John 8:36. Take God at His word, and come to Him just as you are, and you will hear the blessed words spoken to your soul: "Thy sins are forgiven. Go, and sin no more."

"Seek ye the Lord while He may be found, call ye upon Him while He is near; let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return unto the Lord, and He will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon." Isa. 55:6, 7. The Lord is near you today, dear reader. Seek Him while He may be found. To-day is the day of salvation. Do not harden your heart by casting aside the pleadings of the Spirit and rejecting the "exceeding great and precious promises" of His Word.
