

THURSDAY, AUGUST 29, 1912

Happenings in Society

The twelfth annual reunion of the Eyre family is being held today on Parker Hill. Talk with the North Union street annual picnic and a picnic of Lake Avenue chapel gave the resort a decidedly animated appearance.

Mr. and Mrs. James Solomon of Galesburg are spending their honeymoon in a cottage at Lake Goghuac. They were married last Saturday. The bride has been a teacher and the groom is a successful carpenter in Galesburg.

Austin Batdorf, reporter for the Evening News, proved a pleasing host last evening, when a company of six reporters on the three local newspapers gathered at his home on Lake Avenue for a 6:30 dinner and a social time. The hours were spent with musical numbers and some "close harmony," after which card games were played.

Miss Blanche Blevins of 52 Cliff street entertained a dozen girl friends this afternoon, most of the time being devoted to conversation and music. Miss Bessie Morden and Miss Priscilla Reed sang and Miss

Carson of this city. Mrs. Burnham has been employed in the Bolster dry goods store, and will now enjoy the simple life. Several social events were given in her honor by local friends. August 29, 1912

Battle Creek Moon Journal
Rev. George C. Tenney, chaplain of the Sanitarium, officiated at the double wedding of Wilfred Custer Kellogg of Battle Creek and Miss Anna Kellogg, and of Miss Sarah Wilmer of LaGrange, Ill., and Edward VanHorn of Dallas, Texas, which took place Wednesday evening at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. William S. Sadler of LaGrange, Mrs. Sadler being a sister of Miss Kellogg who has made her home there for some time as has Miss Wilmer, the young ladies being close friends. Mr. and Mrs. Kellogg will return to this city to reside and will be at home at 64 Oaklawn Avenue after Nov. 1. Mr. Kellogg is extensively known in the West End, is secretary of the Battle Creek Sanitarium Co., Ltd., and also secretary-treasurer of the Battle Creek Optical Co.

The VanHorn family reunion was held at Parker's Hill, Goghuac lake, today; the company finding the Pennant lunch room agreeable accommodation. Dwight VanHorn, aged 79 years, was the oldest member present, and the youngest was Ellene Latte, aged two months. Fully forty relatives were present at the first annual meeting, which was called to order by Dwight VanHorn. Miss Frances VanHorn was chosen secretary, and it was decided to hold the 1913 reunion at Gull lake, August 28. Those in attendance from Grass Lake

PERSUADING PROVED

By JUNE GA

"Have you, spoke Agatha?" asked Mr. wife.

"You mean about Ford?"
"Yes—I happened to Disbrow coming out of it set me thinking. I had be dazzled by Disbrow flash and overlook the Ford's character."

Mrs. Dickson shook afraid she will, Jamesway."

"You were not—ah? pinched his wife's plump passed on into his study. Oh, there never was the you, James. I thought comes nearer than I wish Mary could see light."

"She seems to like him!"
"The child is charming only I'm afraid she is by Billy Disbrow."

"Agatha, my dear, su drop a word of advice—take it well, send her to ed Mr. Dickson, as he A moment later Mary ry-eyed, lovely, graceful lips set in a tender smile
"All alone, Memsy?" she dropped a light kiss er's white hair.

"Yes, dear. Sit down ment, Mary," and Mrs. a wistful look at the s the tender lips, sighed giving up this sweet de