

News of the Chicago Women's Clubs

By Inez Travers.

The Chicago College club has in prospect a gay winter and some novel novelties that will afford its members an unusually pleasant time. On Oct. 23 the dramatic circle, of which Miss Marjory Valentine is chairman, will give a group of one act plays. In spite of the fact that there is much talent of every variety in the club itself, there will be many professionalists who will entertain the club during the coming season. Miss Elizabeth Hastings, violinist, will be soloist at one of the teas. The college club will give its usual Friday afternoon teas in its clubhouse on the Stevens building. At each tea there will be a musical program. In addition to these teas there will be a tea dance once a month.

This year special dinners will be served on Wednesday and Saturday evenings as a convenience for those who wish to stay downtown. There will be a musical program during the dinners. On Oct. 30 the dinner will be followed by a Halloween party under the auspices of the Glee club and the Dramatic circle. Periodically during the winter there will be dinner dances on Saturday nights for the members and their friends.

Regular luncheons are served daily from 12 to 2 o'clock and tea in the afternoon at a nominal cost. At the regular Friday teas there will be two honorees, one from among the younger and one from the older membership of the club, in order to make the occasion pleasant for all visitors.

The officers of the college club are: President, Mrs. E. Blackwelder; first vice president, Mrs. Edward G. Hatcher; second vice president, Miss Susan W. Peabody; recording secretary, Miss Alta C. Stevens; corresponding secretary, Miss Louise Fairman; treasurer, Miss Anna Louise Squire; auditor, Mrs. P. S. Peterson; historian, Mrs. Archibald Patterson; directors, Mrs. Louis B. Erwin, Mrs. O. C. Foster, Dr. Sarah M. Hobson, and Mrs. Edmund D. Sewall.

The chairs of standing committees are: Entertainment, Mrs. Louis B. Erwin; finance, Mrs. P. S. Peterson; house, Mrs. Edmund D. Sewall; luncheon, Mrs. Edward G. Hatcher; membership, Miss Susan W. Peabody; press, Mrs. H. M. Puffer; printing, Miss Louise Fairman.

REGAL

Sixty Styles at $4
Sixteen Specials at Five Dollars

THE predominant style features for Fall 1915 are solid colors instead of striking combinations—harmony instead of contrast—graceful curves instead of sharp angles—and higher tops for shorter skirts. All of these style features are incorporated in the St. Regis at $4.00 with the new Syph pattern, patent leather vamp and black cloth top. It is getting to be the habit among sharp witted window shoppers—women who know and compare styles and qualities, to say "I saw it at Regal's for less."

No finer compliment could be paid to Regal Collective Purchasing Power and World-Knowledge of Style Requirements, founded upon 25 years' experience in making fashionable footwear for the American woman. There are 75 more styles like this to choose from, giving you an almost unlimited choice of every model, pattern and combination for every taste and occasion.
