

SOCIAL AND ORGANIZATION ACTIVITIES

Masquerade Dance to Feature Lindblom H. S. Homecoming

WITCHES, ghosts, knights of old, snake charmers, Spanish dancers, shiks, and dozens of others, all portrayed by Lindblom alumni, will gather in the little gymnasium at the school, 62nd and Lincoln sts., next Saturday evening for the annual homecoming dance.

The Lindblom-Hyde Park football game at 2 o'clock at White City field will open the celebration.

As homecoming falls on Halloween night, the committee decided to make the dance a masquerade ball. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Keeler, Mr. and Mrs. William Bowlin, and Mrs. Mary E. Courtney, dean of girls, will receive the alumni and their friends.

The affair will be held in honor of the as yet undefeated football team, which many believe is now headed for its second city championship.

Joy Bourne is chairman of the homecoming committee, and David Falkner is president of the alumni association. By communicating with Alex O'Hare, 2590 Yates ave., any Lindblom alumni may secure tickets to the game and dance.

PARTY in honor of her fourth birthday was held today (Thursday) for Edwina Silchenek, 6290 Campbell ave. Seven of her little friends were present. They were June Borden, Eleanor Gillett, Margie Davis, Margie Cannon, Courtney Ann Rold, Doretha Vonrak, and Caroline Silchenek.

The decorations were in the Halloween colors. Games furnished the entertainment, and refreshments were served.

LOYAL Mrs. Laura Cametz was entertained by Mrs. May McCarthy, 1464 W. 72nd st., on Tuesday evening. The prizes were awarded to Mrs. Catherine Jeffries, 7317 May st., Mrs. Mildred Barrett, 6150 Elmhurst st., Mrs. Agnes Kienle, 5525 Thuron st., and Mrs. Sadie Anderson, 6518 Morgan st. The club will meet on November 10 at the home of Mrs. Jeffries.

COLLEGEYAN circle, No. 195, will give a Halloween party on Tuesday evening of next week at the lodge hall, 1116 Columbia ave. A card party will also be held the following Friday evening. Proceeds will be used for charity. Public invitation of officers will be held in the Cannon room of the Morrison hotel, on November 13. Dancing will follow.

At the Lindblom alumni homecoming dance Saturday night will sell Dr. Lena K Sadler for the benefit of the alumni. They are, left to right, front row, Virginia O'Hare, Dorothy Jensen, Mary Peterson, back row, Wallace Turner, Joy Bourne, who is chairman of the affair, Harriet Myrick, David Falkner, the association president, and Alex O'Hare.

DR. Herman N. Buntensen, commissioner of public health for Chicago, will address members of the South Side Catholic Woman's club at 2 o'clock on Thursday afternoon of next week at the Bowdoin K. of C. club home, 63rd st. and Harvard ave. The department of social service will be in charge and the chairman, Mrs. L. C. Freshman, 590 E. 62nd st., will preside. Nena Bolmer will sing.

Lawn Woman's Club to Hear Dr. Sadler on Public Health

PUBLIC HEALTH will be the subject of a talk by Dr. Lena K. Sadler, state chairman of the department of child welfare, at the meeting of the Chicago Lawn Woman's club next Thursday afternoon at the Chicago

MR. and Mrs. Eugene D. Judd, who will host the 80 years old within the next few months at quietly at their home at 634 W. 61st pl., last Saturday evening, even with ear phones, listening to the radio program. "Doesn't seem like sixty years ago this evening that we were married, does it, mother?" asked Mr. Judd as he removed the ear phone. "No it doesn't," replied his wife. "It seems rather new to be able

Rev. Crawford's Return to Lawn Church Is Feted at Reception

THE Rev. John O. Crawford and Mrs. Crawford were honor guests at a reception held by the members of the Chicago Lawn Methodist church, 63rd pl. and St. Louis ave., Tuesday evening, which was held in celebration of the return of the Rev. Mr. Crawford to the church by the recent session of the Rock River conference.

Short addresses were given by the Rev. George B. Drake, pastor of the St. W. Thomas Memorial Congregational church, the Rev. Edwin V. Griswold, rector of St. Elizabeth's Episcopal church, the Rev. Robert C. Stanger, pastor of Grace Evangelical church, and the Rev. Leon Arpes, pastor of Marquette Park Presbyterian church. George E. Stolp, president of the board of trustees, represented the church in an address of welcome. Mrs. Mary E. Lukins, president of the Woman's Federation, spoke on behalf of the women of the church and presented Mrs. Crawford with a bouquet of chrysanthemums. Special music was furnished by members of the church.

John Gabosch was chairman of the program committee. Ray M. Wilson, the entertainment committee, and Claude E. Dennison was in charge of publicity.

The program was concluded with a response of appreciation by the Rev. Crawford.

THE wedding of Miss Mabelle Orlepp, 6313 Normal Blvd., to Elmer Walter, son of Mr. and Mrs. August Walter, 4202 Yale ave., took place on October 18 at the home of Judge and Mrs. John C. Richter in LaPorte, Ind. Judge Richter, who is a brother of Mrs. Walter, performed the ceremony. His children, Jack and Josephine, attended them, and Mrs. Walter was present.

and Mrs. Walter are now residing at 77th st. and Stewart ave. The bride was employed by Frank Keimer in his stationery store at 443 W. 63rd st. for many years before her marriage.

OPENING her home last Tuesday to the Lady Aberdeen chapter of the D. H. E. Mrs. Henry Harper, 7142 Normal ave., had a 1 o'clock luncheon served to thirteen guests. A business meeting followed, when plans for the coming bazaar were discussed.

MRS. J. Sullivan, 1276 W. 72nd st., entertained members of her "Good Club" at a 1 o'clock luncheon and a buncie party at her home this afternoon (Wednesday).

AT A small evening party, Mrs. M. Waschke, 6341 Whipple st., entertained twenty-three friends at a celebration of her silver wedding anniversary on Saturday of last week. Games and singing furnished the entertainment for the evening. Mrs. Waschke has been employed in the cafeteria of the Lindblom high school as pastry cook for almost six years. Her guests were seated in the same cafeteria. A gift of several pieces of table silver was presented Mrs. Waschke by the assembled guests.

A SURPRISE birthday party in honor of Mrs. William Walter, 7431 Normal ave., was given by neighbors and friends on Saturday evening, October 17. Forty guests were present and spent the evening in playing buncie. Prizes were awarded as follows: First prize for women, Mrs. Elizabeth Joomis; second prize for women, Mrs. Margaret Stuehrer; consolation prize, Mrs. Jewel Feitichler. First prize for men, John O'Donnell; second prize for men, Thomas Walters; consolation, George Link.

IRVING Buncie club met at the home of Mrs. E. Shrouds, 9017 Rockwell st., last Friday. The winners were Mrs. Ed. White, Mrs. E. Bloomquist, and Mrs. P. Bright. Consolation prize went to Mrs. C. Stevens. Mrs. Stevens will entertain the club on November 7 at her home, 306 E. 65th st.

MRS. Julianna Cametz was hostess at a luncheon given in honor of Mrs. Laura Sinclair and her sister, Mrs. Jessie White, at her home 3930 Lincoln st., on Tuesday. Mrs. Sinclair and Mrs. Elizabeth Cametz have been classmates at the University of Chicago for the past two summers.

LEND A Hand Sunday school class was entertained Friday evening by Mrs. George B. Drake at her home, 1542 W. 64th pl.

THIMBLE club members were the guests of Mrs. C. Skerrett, 3643 W. 63rd pl., on Tuesday.

HALLOWEEN party was given by Miss Carol Anderson, 3407 W. 66th pl., on Saturday afternoon.

ACCESSORY
SURGICAL APPLIANCE
CO.
Braces, Trusses, Supporters, Etc.,
To Order
For Appointment Phone
Resubline 4897

Manor Woman's Club to Hold Guest Day Next Wednesday

PROFESSOR Bertram Nelson of the department of public speaking at the University of Chicago will give the program at the meeting of the Marquette Manor Woman's club at 1:30 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon of next week at the club house, 9048 Fairview ave. It will be the annual guest day.

He will give a dramatic recital of "The Servant in the House," a play. Mrs. George Tierney, a new member, will play several piano solos.

A report will be given of the Third District meeting held last Thursday at the Ridge Park field house by the delegate, Mrs. A. Gullandau, 6536 Campbell ave.

Hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. M. Mayer, 8115 Artesian ave., and Mrs. W. C. New, 6110 Artesian ave.

CANNA chapter of Delta Alpha Sorority held their October social meeting in the form of a Halloween party at the home of Elizabeth Merrick, 3211 Lake Park ave., on Friday night. The evening was spent in playing games suitable for Halloween and in dancing. At this time a ring with the initials of the sorority was presented to Miss Verdel Slater who will leave in a few days for San Diego, Cal.

THE annual bazaar of Clark Kenner chapter, No. 676, of the Order of the Eastern Star, will be held on Thursday at the Delta Alpha Masonic temple, 64th and Green sts. Dinner will be served by members at 6 o'clock. Mrs. Nellie Holmes, 3010 E. 63rd st., is worthy matron.

MRS. ANNA RUMPE, 7331 Perry ave., entertained a few friends at luncheon Monday.

WANTED A Salesman

In old established Real Estate Office. Continual advertising and best co-operation. Must have car and be reliable.

C. O. WHITE & CO.
3044 W. 63rd Street
Prospect 1612-1617