Dear Kristen:

Please accept my sincere apology for not writing sooner to thank you for your kind letter and the transcripts of talks by Bill Sadler, Jr. I had a serious attack of flu which affected my damaged heart so I wasn't able to do any of my correspondence.

Several years ago I donated all of my tapes of Bill Sadler's (Jr.) talks to the URANTIA Foundation so they would have a wider circulation and I did this without keeping copies so I doubly appreciate having the ones you sent. He spoke for a week's conference, morning, noon, and night, and I taped all of those sessions on my reel-to-reel Wollensack. I had very clear copies so Chicago really has some precious materials. Bill was one of the best informed and great teachers that we have ever had and I feel so privileged to have taken many courses under him and under his father, Dr. William S. Sadler, in Chicago. His father of course was one of the best authorities on the Papers, and so was Bill's mother, Dr. Lena Sadler. Do you have any of their books? I especially recommend Theory and Practice of Psychiatry, by William S. Sadler. I was so very fortunate to have first learned about the Papers from them in Chicago. I treasure those times. Dr. Sadler has written about 60 books and I would suggest that you might enjoy reading any of them. They are available in most libraries.

I managed to find a few snapshots of Bill Sadler, Jr. that I had kept in a file in our little Casita, a storehouse, of many URANTIA materials. I will keep looking and send you some better ones later. Also I found one of his papers which I will include and send you more of those later. Right now I am still so weak I just can't look very much but I will as soon as possible.

Thank you again, dear friend, and do keep in touch.

Love and joy,
