

Berkeley 30 August 1976

Dear Charles,

Loyalty is the test of friendship - loyalty over time. Loyalty that is the fruit of devotion to our Father's will. Wholehearted consecration to the Father ripens friendship and keeps it dynamic and bright. Can you imagine what a joy it was to me to hear from you? I still keep with me a copy of your ethics paper. By seeking and finding God we have found a new relation to each other - so, brother, I welcome you as a friend.

The problem of finding a vocation which will satisfy spiritual and material goals is hard. I have been facing it again, lately. On the one hand, it is easy: witness the Master taking up a variety of "ordinary jobs" and doing the Father's will through each one. Hear him encourage the Alphaeus twins that all honest work is sacred to one who is conscious of God. And notice that in the early days with the twelve he did not demand of material work that it should be spiritually expressive to a high degree - they alternately fished and did personal work every in two week periods.

I have committed myself to live in Berkeley in order to do volunteer work with the Family of God Foundation. We put out a radio broadcast heard on many stations all over the world - mostly campus dialogues centering on the Fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man. This work means that, for the most part, I cannot get teaching jobs, so I look for something that will leave me time and energy for the volunteer work. (I correspond with radio stations, answer listener mail and do personal work on the University & California campus (in Berkeley).)

A major goal of URANTIA Brotherhood right now is to establish "thousands" of study groups. We are gathering on the brink of a mighty spiritual renaissance, and the Fifth Epochal Revelation will exert its quiet influence during our generation through the lives of those students & The URANTIA Book who show the truths that set men free. Very great tact is needed in introducing the book to others; rare is an opportunity such as I had in Bowling Green. But such little study groups as we began there bear extraordinary fruit. Even 2 or 3 people, reading and discussing a paper at a time, going from Paper 1 to Paper 196 with enjoy enhanced growth and service.

Beyond the study group, the need is great for a variety of service activities which might not be explicitly connected to the URANTIA Brotherhood. (The Family of God Foundation is one of these.) No mention is made of the book, yet a spiritual message is conveyed to ready ears, ears perhaps not ready for the depths of 2097 pages of revelation.

Have faith that the Father has a plan for your life. Have faith that he has given you the tools to discover that plan in wholehearted seeking, and have faith that any price is small for the chance to fulfill that plan as he sends you forth in the joy of his love and the mercy of his service.

Your brother, Jeth

I am mightily confirmed in my decision to add my energies to this team.

Well this is just the beginning of a conversation - I look for more news of you. I pray the Father's light upon your choices. I would challenge you with the thought that this movement needs leaders. Revelation has again taken on the task of ^(extra-spiritual) civilizational uplift (explicitly part of the 1st & 2nd epiphanal revelations, explicitly excluded in the 2nd & 3rd); although the most urgent planetary need is not necessarily a key to the Father's call, each student of The GRANTIA Book must ask, "What is my role in the dawning spiritual renaissance?"

Cheerio!
