Dear Friends:

You may have wondered about getting together again to talk about the Urantia Book. I believe we can all speak more knowingly if we have had opportunity to read at least the Life of Christ. To browse through this type of book is all but useless. Since most of us are quite busy, it will probably take some time for you to read these seven hundred pages of the Life of Christ.

So would you please let me know when you have finished reading the entire Life of Christ - or that you have decided because of lack of time or interest you will not read it. When all of us have read it, we will get together and discuss it. I think you will find it the most remarkable account of the Life of Christ which you have ever read. Let me know when you have finished it.

Cordially yours,

Meredith J. Sprunger
