Dear Friends:

Thank you for the invitation to attend the 20th anniversary celebration and the dedication of the Institute, but I will not be attending.

I pray for all of us success in discovering God's will, and in the striving to do it.

I value my friendship and association with all of you. Whatever the future holds, let us go forward fully confident of our status as sons and daughters of the Most High.

With sincerity and good will,

Charles R. Arterburn
