

The School of Meanings and Values

WHITTIER STUDY GROUP

THE SCHOOL OF MEANINGS AND VALUES
presents its first Field Teacher /Study Group Class

Fall, 1989      Hosted by Stella Religa
Tel. 213-698-2122

Class Title:            HOW JESUS TAUGHT

Class Description:

This four lesson, 8 hour class will research and study the main content, and technique/attitude of Jesus' instruction on our planet, Urantia. The emphasis will be on the qualitative aspects of his actual teaching, and perfect life example, which can serve as an exemplary model both in education and life building.

*****

__On Fridays at 7:30PM__

- LESSON I.    October 6, 1989
              The Gospel According to Jesus
              Stephen Neece- Guest Teacher
              Canyon Country, Ca.
- LESSON II.    October 20, 1989
              How Jesus Taught by Decision and Action
              Polly Friedman-Teaching Staff, SMV
              Calabasas, Ca.
- LESSON III    November 3, 1989
              How Jesus Taught with Discourses and Sermons
              Cathy Jones- Teaching Staff, SMV
              Mesa, Arizona
- LESSON IV.    November 17, 1989
              How Jesus Taught Using Parables
              Dorothy Elder-Teaching Staff, SMV
              Los Angeles, Ca.

Study group participants in the Whittier area are cordially invited to attend this first pilot class in field teaching sponsored by the School of Meanings and Values, Santa Monica, CA. There will be audio-visual materials, handouts, and discussion. We will learn from your feedback and evaluation.

*There is no registration fee for this historic class. Donations for the cost of materials will be appreciated.
The School of Meanings and Values is a non-profit, tax-exempt corporation based on the teachings of the URANTIA Book.