"CALLING ALL ANGELS" Presented by THE SCHOOL OF MEANINGS & VALUES

November 10, 2001 AGENDA

Registration and Continental Breakfast:

9:30 am

Program Time:

10:00 am - 4:00 pm

Purpose of the course: To enhance the individual's knowledge and understanding of the numerous angel orders, the extent of their involvement with society and individuals; what has been known and what is new. The emphasis focuses on developing a stronger connection with our personal angels in our daily lives.

GOAL: To experience an enhanced appreciation, awareness, and expansion of the role of angels who are real and at work all around us. To utilize more fully this awesome power presence, another gift of the Father, Son and Infinite Spirit.

Morning Program

10:00 am - 11:10 am

Class I - Angels in Urantia history -

Robert Burns

Polly Friedman

Talks with visuals (slides) illustrating angels in our history before the expanded truth enlarged our vision.

11:10 - 11:20

Break

11:20 am - 12:30 pm

Class II - Revelatory Expansion

Jackie and Kermit

Anderson

New knowledge, enlightenment, and inspiration from the Urantia Papers.

12:30 pm - 1:30 pm

Lunch and Music

Afternoon Program

1:30 pm - 3:30 pm

Class III - Calling on Your Angels

Timothy Wyllie

Elli Bainbridge

A circle type group with stories and movement. The emphasis is on sharing and participation.

3:30 pm - 4:00 pm

Program Summary/Closing Meditation

Robert Burns

Robert has been a Urantia Book reader since 1974. He has been involved in study Groups since 1978 and been a leader of a Study Group in his home since 1990.

He has been a member of the First Society of Los Angeles since August 1992 and served in various offices such as Treasurer. Vice President and President since then. Currently, he serves as the Finance Chair of the Executive Committee of the Urantia Book Fellowship. He is also on the Advisory Committee for the School of Meaning & Values.

Robert has a long standing association with the American Heart Association Orange County Division and serves currently as the Chairman of Logistics - Heart & Sole Walk. He is a former President and Chairman of this Division of the American Heart Association.

In 1982 Robert founded the Shape-Up Fitness Center as well as Fitness Concepts, Inc. in 1994. He and Cindy, his wife and friend for 27 years have 2 children. He enjoys a passion for Scottish, Welsh and English history as well as Sailing ships circa 1800's. Other passions include fitness and sports performance, nutrition and life extension, enoughourding, the pursuit and achievement of cooperative group endeavors (i.e. the magic of cooperation and the enchantment of synergy) business, family friends, and social life and especially the dissemination of the Urantia Book wisely to the people of the world.

Polly Friedman

Polly has always had a passion for people, places, progress, poetry, and popeorn. She was a school teacher for 36 years and is currently a licensed Marriage and Family Therapist. She loves cooking, entertaining, and networking. The Urantia Book came into her life in a big way in 1962. Since then she has been instrumental in co-founding two Urantia organizations, including the School of Meanings & Values. Polly developed and built a new social service program for the county of Ventura. "Parents United". Other favorite pastimes include the "B" words: the blue book. Bach, blues, baseball, and books. Closest to her heart, however, are eight "exceptional" grandekildren. She would like to know if anyone out there has a occondhand set of drums she can buy!

Kermit & Jackie Anderson

Kermit was born in Boulder. Colorado and raised in Southern California. He graduated from CSU Los Angeles in 1968, with a B.A. in psychology. He served in the Teacher Corps and Peace Corps in 1972-1974, spending a eyar in Zaire, Africa teaching high school science and math. Upon his return he taught high school math and science. Kermit and Jackie were married in 1976 and began their Urantia Study Group the same year. Kermit received a MA in genetic counseling from the University of California. Irvine in 1980. He worked as a genetic counselor for 20 years and is currently Director of Genetic Screening Services for Kaiser Permanente of Southern California. God introduced Kermit to the Urantia Book in 1969.

Jackie is a native Californian, but spent her early childhood in Missouri. She graduated from CSU Fullerton with a B.A. in Communications, with an emphasis in Journalism. She has worked as newspaper reporter, publicist, food writer, newsletter editor, and in audio-visual and video production. She is currently focusing on her growing family, writing, and has helped organized interdenominational prayer network in Orange County, as well as the 2000 Renovare Conference. Together they are also involved in church activities, leading various small groups and teaching adult classes on prayer and spiritual growth.

Timothy Wyllie

Timothy is an author and interspecies researcher. After a Near Death Experience in 1973 alerted him to the reality of angels he has expanded his explorations into non-human intelligences to include dolphins and extraterrestrials. Among other books he has co-authored "Ask Your Angels", which has sold over half a million copies and has been translated into 11 languages.

Elli Bambridge

Elli is an Australian artist, a weaver, and a mother. She has worked extensively both alone and with Timothy over the last decade to bring contact with the angels to people through Angelic Movement workshops and her writings, paintings, and weavings. Together they wrote "Contacting Your Angles Through Movement. Meditation, and Music" which was published in Australia in 1995 and will be available in an updated edition in America in 2002.