Dear John,

I am honored and delighted to have received your invitation to conduct a seminar at The Boulder School, February 9th through 11th on "Parenting in the Home Life in the 20th Century; Contributing to its Evolution." As you know, these are subjects of such great importance today, and I am committed to helping our young people build strong families.

I accept with gratitude your invitation. I would like to suggest for your consideration, however, that I be permitted to make the presentation jointly with our good friend, Chick Montgomery, who has assisted me in the past on this subject. I suggest this for three reasons:

1. Chick and I have worked jointly in the past on numerous occasions giving study groups and talks on the subject of Marriage and Family. Our material covers courtship and selecting a mate as well as Parenting. Chick has prepared a number of study aids to stimulate group participation.
2. I feel it is essential to have both the male and the female viewpoints represented when dealing with this subject.
3. At this time it is helpful for me to have a traveling companion. Chick and I have traveled together by air and car many times before, and we have worked out a good "system" for efficient transfers, baggage handling, etc.

We have discussed it, and he would like to participate. We have agreed to share the $400 honorarium ($200 each) and contribute any additional expenses individually, if you would like to have us both come. Thus there would be no additional expense to you.

I'm very much looking forward to visiting with you in Boulder. Will you let me know the approximate hours, each day, that you would like filled? Also the number of participants expected so I can duplicate materials? And whether my suggestion for a joint presentation with Chick fits in with your program?

With warm and loving regards,

Julia

Dear Julia:

Thank you for your letter of October 10th. I am delighted to hear that you will be able to conduct the seminar on "Parenting" February 9th and 11th. And by all means, do bring your friend, Chick Montgomery.

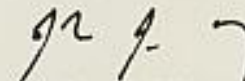

The seminar would be held here at the School between 6:30 and 10:00 P.M. (Wednesday and Friday) with two, fifteen minute breaks. I have enclosed this semester's seminar schedule for comparison. You may expect between 35 and 45 people to attend. The intervening Thursday is traditionally spent with the morning and afternoon classes of the School.

My secretary, Carl Pickering, will contact you in January to arrange for your airline ticket.

I trust that you received our mailing lists in good order and that you will share with us the remainder of your list whenever you can obtain an alphabetized printout of M through Z.

Thank you again, Julia. We all very much look forward to your visit.

Peace & Blessings,

John D. Hay

Dear Julia:

We have all been following with great concern the news of your recent illness and hospitalization. We are happy to hear that you are now at home and recuperating.

In view of your illness, I wonder if you might not elect to postpone your seminar on "Parenting" — scheduled for February 9th and 11th. We could arrange for another date if you wish, in April or May. Please let us know of your preference. Also, whenever it might be possible, we would very much appreciate the remainder of your mailing list in an alphabetized printout of M through Z.

Please know that you are in our prayers as we look forward to your speedy recovery.

Sincerely,

John D. Hay

Dear John:

I am very touched by your kindness and thoughtfulness concerning my illness. Yes, I would like very much to accept your offer to change the dates from February to April or May. I would prefer early May if that meets with your approval.

It is good to feel a little better day by day, but it is much slower progress than I like though my doctor (excellent heart specialist at UCLA, Dr Mac Alpin) thinks I am doing very well.

Also, if it meets with your approval I would like very much to change the title of the course to "Marriage and Family" or "Marriage and Parenting". The main reason is that we would then draw the young singles in and we have some exciting materials prepared for all ages and conditions (ha). For example - ~~the~~ Seven Human Love Stories in the URANTIA Book. I base some questions and comparisons on them for discussions such as Why did they succeed? What are their commonalities? Also the young people add a lot to a group. It will be fun.

Yes, we will certainly get the remainder of that mailing list to you when it is finished. Bryan is now in Sweden on a two weeks vacation and just before he left he finished his two courses for his M.A. degree so now I expect he will have more time for his computer.

Thank you again, John, for your great courtesies. I will anticipate an answer to my two questions and then will plan and prepare accordingly.

Happy New Year to all,

Warmly and sincerely,

Julia

Dear Julia:

Replying for John, I can tell you that you may indeed change the title of your seminar to "Marriage and Family". How about May 25th and 26th for the dates of the seminar? This would be on a Wednesday and Thursday, rather than Wednesday and Friday. *

All of us here fervently hope that you have recovered from your recent illness and look forward to having you here.

Sincerely,

Carl Pickering
Secretary, The Boulder School
