Dear Richard,

At the beginning of a new year I wish to thank you for the support that you have given during the past year. The $4800 that you contributed to the School was vital to its growth, and I want you to know that we appreciate it very much. If you could possibly see your way to making a donation again, the School could really use the money (not more than $4999 from any one person).

We had hoped, of course, to have you participate as a trustee of the School, but I know that many valid reasons can exist for declining, and we appreciate the participation of others in whatever way may be possible for them.

I am enclosing the seminar schedule for this semester. We are in the process of composing and printing a new brochure to be sent out to our enlarged mailing list of nearly 3,000 members, and you will be among those receiving it. Any comments that you might have would be most welcome.

I am selling more Tea Company stock this month and plan on sending you another $100,000 to invest for me this year. I'll be calling you as soon as the stock is sold.

Thank you again for your support. I look forward to working with you again this year.

Sincerely,

John D. Hay
