Dear Roger:

Thank you for your interest in the content of our programs. You are correct in your assertion that it is essential for each of us to come to understand the language and cultures of as many of our brothers and sisters as possible. At this time, however, we do not plan to offer such courses as you have suggested for two major reasons:

- 1) Every program costs money. We feel that we must concentrate our resources in those areas which we uniquely serve and which we serve best.
- 2) There are many programs, even within the Boulder area, which admirably serve the purposes you've outlined. Students are encouraged to take advantage of such programs.

Thank you again for your letter. I will forward your enclosure to Mo Siegel.

In the Spirit,

Merritt Horn
