Dear Merritt:

I wanted to write to tell you how much I appreciate all of the courtesies extended to us during our visit to Boulder two weeks ago.

We had a delightful visit and, I'm sure, came away with a greater understanding of the fine programs of the Boulder School. The students are obviously, and justly, proud of their school. I'm certain all of us have wished we could spend an extended period of time intensively studying the papers in company with other devoted students.

Give my best wishes to John, Carl, and all the students.

Sincerely,

Carolyn Kendall
