Dear Bettina;

Bob Venosa told me that you called the other day and stated that your preference is for the October 19 and 21 seminar. Consider it done.

We will work out the details of your visit a little later, but let me know your preferences regarding the following:

1. Your flight—We can make the reservations for you or you can make them yourself.
2. Your accommodations here—We usually rent a hotel-type room in the apartment complex where Lou and Beth Meyer live. This allows them to keep an eye on you and to help make your stay comfortable. If you have any special requirements for your housing, let me know.
3. Meals and social gatherings—You can expect to be invited to several homes during your stay; if you'd like us to do some social scheduling for you, we'd be happy to.
4. Your seminar—We will go with the title "World Religions: Problems and Opportunities" unless you notify us that another would be better.
5. Babysitting—If you have any further thoughts on your requirements for your son, we'll be happy to provide what you require.

We are grateful and honored that you have consented to lead this seminar at the Boulder School, and look forward to your visit with great anticipation.

I hope that your family is well and that things aren't too frantic.

John and everyone else here send their love.

In the Spirit,

Merritt Horn
