October 1, 1996

The Board of Directors of The Boulder School, Inc., hereby agrees to sponsor the work of Common Spirit, whose mission is "to promote integrity, harmony and compassion among all people by cultivating spiritual kinship, celebrating religious and spiritual diversity and discovering shared values."

The Board takes this action in order to further the accomplishment of the mission of the School, with particular emphasis on the goals of the School as outlined in its Mission Statement of November, 1982:

"To facilitate that personal religious experience of the individual with our Heavenly Father which is the foundation of all spiritual and social progress." In particular, it was intended that the School foster "a series of [interfaith] seminars for overcoming the religious prejudice found in today's society."

The Boulder School will provide such administrative and organizational support as Common Spirit may require to accomplish its goals, and the Board of Directors hereby resolves that Common Spirit shall be allowed to open a checking account to keep track of its own financial transactions under the auspices of the School. As an official activity of the Boulder School, donations to Common Spirit are tax deductible under the School's 501(c)(3) status.

This decision of the Board of the Boulder School to sponsor Common Spirit shall be reviewed semi-annually to ensure that the School's mission continues to be fulfilled through Common Spirit's activities.

In witness of this action of the Board of Directors, the President and Secretary affix their signatures hereto:

Merritt C. Horn
Secretary
