the physically handicapped. I have a friend, Joe Mathes, a pilot, who is also interested in Urantia, and a son and his wife who are also great spiritual

Dear Jim:

I am delighted that you are publishing the Agondonter and I want to send blessings to you for your enthusiasm and desire to bring us all together, as a close knit body of Urantians. I do not know of any group, here, although there is one in San Francisco and one in Berkeley. But I love the book and am making my own outline of the book.

I live in Palo Alto, am a high school home teacher for

I have studied many Eastern religions, think they have contributed much to the understanding I have of Urantia.

I studied Zen Buddhism for 7 years and found it a beautiful philosophy, as well as Percival's Thinking and Destiny, which I consider a great book. At the present time I am interested in The I AM I AM St. Germain series, which contain some of the Urantia Teachings. But Urantia is the greatest book I have ever found to explain the entire Cosmos Picture
