

September 16, 1974

Event of Interest for the Agondonter

The first Urantian party for children took place Sunday, September 15th at Julia's home, honoring Nathaniel Lindoerfer who was visiting with his mother from Berkeley. Seven came: Tania, Tracy and Talisia Hunt, Denise and Jim Flanders, Lani Brittin and Nathaniel.

There was quite an age range, from 3 to 10 years. The children showed forth the spirit of love and cooperation with which they are being raised. Julia, being the experienced teacher and organizer that she is, had the timing and schedule worked out to the children's advantage and attention span.

First Jim and Denise Flanders sang a fine, on tune rendition of The Me That I Want To Be and Another New Day, and then they led the other children in these songs. Then they enjoyed, with great relish, a dinner of hot dogs, baked beans, pink lemonade and accessories. Julia read a couple of stories from a booklet about the early childhood of Jesus put together by Dr. Bob Slagle and his family. On to parfaits with a little surprise at the bottom and cake of jello and marshmallows and a walk in the cool of the evening. The children enjoyed the idea of the party being a "cuzz" party....just because they are loved and because they are children.

by Sara Lindoerfer

Jim's Please cut this to bare essentials. No need for menus etc. Julia

You write so well and with such humor I wish you'd do one like Deen gave in Chicago, in time to get it appeared. I know they'd approve it on time.
on Humor in U.S.

The first Urantian party for children took place at the home of Mrs. Julia Fenderson on September 15th. Guest of honor was Nathaniel Lindoerfer who was visiting with his mother from Berkeley. Julia's other guests included Tania, Tracy, and Talisa Hunt, Denise and Jim Flanders, and Lani Brittin.

The children's ages ranged from 3 to ~~7~~ 10, and quickly became caught up the spirit of the evening's activities. Jim and Denise Flanders sang a fine, on tune rendition of The Me That I Want To Be, and Another New Day, and ^{LEAD} the other children ~~unhappily~~ ^{IN THESE SONGS} sang ~~xx~~ along, Julia captivated the seven as she read stories about the early childhood of Jesus from a booklet influenced by The URANTIA Book put together by Dr. Bob Slagle and his family.

The children enjoyed the idea of the party being a "cuzz" party... just because they are loved and because they are God's loving children.

~~SAT~~