Dear Penny,

Thanks for sending these beautiful photos. And your promptness and dependability are impressive!

But here's what happened. Before receiving your packet, and despairing of finding a suitable photo, I fell back on my own resources and Painted a cover for the Agondonter.

If it is well received I will continue to paint covers. If not I may switch to photos, in which case I will re-request these, as they are perfect.

In the meantime, I'm returning them, so you will know they are safe.

It was nice to visit with you at Bill's the other night. Peace, blessings, and keep up the good work.

Yours in service,
Chick
