MAKE YOUR CONFERENCE RESERVATIONS NOW!

We already know of over 100 people who are coming to our conference next week at Griffith Park Boys' Camp. Are you coming? If you are, and haven't registered, we encourage you to call Lorrie Shapiro now at 213-823-7255. (Call night or day...she has an answering service.)

Conference activities begin Friday night at 7:00 P.M. at the home of Dick Ziglar, 2000 Parnell Avenue, West L.A. with the Saturday and Sunday program continuing at the Park Camp.

P R E S I D E N T ' S M E S S A G E

As you read this, our FUSLA Conference is a scant week away. We eagerly await the arrival of our friends from the Oklahoma Society. Happily, we open registration and we look forward to the arrival of other friends closer to home.

From Oklahoma, Berkeley Elliott, Tom Allen, Coleen and Larry Mullins will bring their new slide production, "Pebbles of Truth in the Ocean of Mankind: A Quest for the Damascus Scribe."

This cooperative presentation of a conference by societies from two states marks a departure from the usual conference format. It is our hope that the result will be a closer fellowship among all conferees.

Soon after our conference, the Governing Committee will be working to establish some goals for FUSLA. One suggestion has been that FUSLA host a major conference in the Summer of 1980 or 1981.

Your Governing Committee welcomes and encourages your suggestions and opinions. In the matter of goals in general and a major conference in particular we urge you to share your thoughts and ideas.

Meantime, may you walk in the light of our Father's love and share it with all those around you.

CONFERENCE REGISTRATION DETAILS

Dates are October 5, 6, and 7. Cost is $15 for single attendees, $25 per couple, and $5 per child. Lunch and dinner on Saturday are provided. Snacks are provided throughout the week-end. Transportation from the airport or bus station will be arranged...just let us know the time. Housing in the homes of local readers will be provided. Main thing is to let our conference coordinator, Lorrie Shapiro, know you are coming. Call her at (213) 823-7255 and leave a message.

UNIQUE CONFERENCE PROGRAM PLANNED

At the heart of the conference is the Oklahoma slide show about Jesus' Roman tour, shown in three parts, total running time, 2 hours. Study groups on "Truth and Faith" and "Personal Ministry" will tie into segments of the slide presentation.

Saturday afternoon there will be "elective" workshops on such topics as Prayer and Worship, Marriage and Family, Interfacing the URANTIA Book with World Religions, and a Drama Workshop. Tastefully outrageous entertainment will cap off the evening.

On Sunday morning, Nancy Grimsley, from Berkeley, will speak on "Love". Duane Faw will then conduct an open forum, in which any conferee may make a brief statement to the group on any topic. The conference will be concluded with a felicitous surprise, conducted by Michael Long.

TO REMAIN ON OUR MAILING LIST....

FUSLA Secretary Ray Caligiuri reminds us that visitors to FUSLA meetings who sign our guest list will receive the Monitor for three months. After that, unless you come again and sign up, or unless you write to Ray (9655 Kessler Av, Chatsworth, CA 91311) requesting to be kept on the list, your name will be deleted.

Members of FUSLA will automatically receive mailings, whether they attend meetings or not. This is covered in your dues.
