IDAHO GATHERING OF URANTIA BOOK STUDENTS

Julia Fenderson has just returned from the first Idaho get-together. She reports that there were people from eight towns, and from as far as Salt Lake City. The gathering was at the home of Bert Cobb, in Jerome. You all know that's about 100 miles from Pocatella. The theme was "Love and Service." About forty came, including children. And about four new study groups were organized in the various towns, as a result of the gathering.

BILL AND CORLIN SHERWOOD ... PROUD PARENTS

Bill and Corlin, FUSLA folks who were married by Vern Grimsley here in L.A. moved to New Mexico a while back to raise kids in the good life of the wide open spaces by the river. Well the first one has come. It's a boy, and doing fine. Congratulations Bill and Corlin!

FRIENDS PITCH IN TO WELCOME BACK VINCE VENTOLA

Vince has been up in the Eureka area for a couple of years, where among other things he completed a 100 foot mural in a public recreation building. He recently found a house in Santa Monica and refugees from the Jim Wanlass study group pitched in to help him paint it. Welcome home, Vince!

LORRIE GETS AN EMMY

"The Baxters" is a public affairs T.V. show that combines dramatized situations with audience discussion of current issues. The show recently won an Emmy in Los Angeles for the best local public affairs show. Our own Lorrie Shapiro was the show's Associate Producer.
