BOOKSTORE CONSIGNMENT PROGRAM

The Book Store Consignment Program works this way: a reader contacts a bona fide book store and requests it to carry The URANTIA Book or Le Livre d'URANTIA, presenting it with a Consignment Request Form. If the dealer wishes to carry it, he or she will need to fill out the short form and mail it to URANTIA Foundation (English edition) or Amadon Corporation (French edition), and either one or two copies will be sent directly to the dealer, postage pre-paid. Copies of the Consignment Request Form are available on request.

We encourage the reader to check with the dealer from time to time to see how new interest develops and sales progress. When a book is sold, the dealer can remit the Foundation's or Amadon's share of the proceeds. Thereafter, we hope the dealer will reorder at the standard bookstore discount. If the books are not sold, we will pay for the return postage.
