To Mrs. Lawrence

Dear Mrs. Lawrence:

*not seashore -ausalito - Highway 1

Thank you very much for your telephone call on September 10. We are delighted to hear from you and extend you a warm welcome into the ever-growing family of URANTIA Book readers. May your experiences with the book be as stimulating and exciting as ours are.

For your information, we enclose literature descriptive of the functions of The URANTIA Foundation and The URANTIA Brotherhood, brochures on the book, and a policy statement relative to reproduction of excerpts therefrom.

We are convinced that The URANTIA Book is the revelation man has waited for a long time. Its authors are exactly as they purport themselves to be. Its teachings are magnificent and its spirituality supernal.

The technique of its transmission is to be found in the book itself; not as a continuous narrative, but as bits and pieces scattered throughout the book. The discovery and proper assortment of these fascinating clues is an achievement possible only after several readings of the book itself.

The URANTIA Book has never been the subject of any commercial methods of promotion. The URANTIA Foundation is a non-profit organization, supported by its friends and believers in The URANTIA Book, thus is under no commercial pressures nor need to respond to them.

We do not missionize, or evangelize, or use any method of mental persuasion such as sophistries or resort to non-existent authority to attempt to influence readers or potential readers. The dissemination of the book is still simply by word-of-mouth, despite the fact that currently 85 to 90% of our shipments are to bookstores. Through our own experience with The URANTIA Book, we have learned such respect for the fundamental dignity and integrity of the individual human mind that we refuse to attempt to invade those mindal areas which God himself holds to be inviolable.

We wish you the best of success with your continued readings, which we suggest move forward at a steady pace and a rate most comfortable to you. Should you have questions develop which may seem to cause difficulty to you, please do not hesitate to write to us. We shall give them prompt attention.

By copies of this letter, we are asking some of our friends in California to get in touch with you.

Sincerely yours,

James C. Mills
Vice President
