Dear Chick:

This is to confirm our telephone conversation of November 9, 1979 concerning your request for permission to use material from The URANTIA Book.

As was indicated to you during the conversation, the Trustees of URANTIA Foundation are pleased to grant you permission to use material from The URANTIA Book which appears in your three songs entitled, "Come to the Mansion Worlds," "I'm from Urantia," and "When I was just a Tadpole," copies of which were attached to your October 23 letter.

This grant of permission limits you to producing only 30 copies of each song and, further, that those copies be only distributed to those individuals who attended Mrs. Julia K. Fenderson's seminar on marriage and family held on November 10 and 11 in Portland and Corvallis, Oregon.

Also, you were asked to place at the bottom of the page on the copies of your two songs entitled, "Come to the Mansion Worlds" and "I'm from Urantia" the following legend:

Material contained herein is derived from the copyrighted work, The URANTIA Book, copyright © 1955 by URANTIA Foundation, all rights reserved, and is used with permission.

With regard to your song entitled, "When I was a Tadpole," you were asked to employ the same legend at the bottom of the page on the copies of the song with the addition of the word "Some" in front of the word "material."

The other requests for permission included in your October 23 letter are currently under consideration and you will, of course, be hearing from the Trustees as soon as they have time to review the requests. Your co-operation and patience are much appreciated. Everyone here sends you their best, as well as Ellen and all our friends at FUSLA.

In Fellowship,

Scott M. Forsythe
