Dear John:

Re: The URANTIA Book In Machine Readable Form

The Trustees, in acknowledging your inquiry concerning possible positive uses of material from The URANTIA Book presently extant in machine readable form, wish to let you know that the matter is indeed presently--as it has been for sometime now--under consideration. However, we hasten to add that this issue, as you might well suspect, is indeed liberally fraught with thorny issues and therefore an easy and definitive response is not that readily realizable. Nevertheless, we can, to the extent you and your associates will find it encouraging, promise to continue to give this matter our earnest attention--as we sincerely try to do with all those matters urged upon the Board of Trustees for its most careful consideration.

We appreciate the cooperation we have so often received from the officers and members of URANTIA Brotherhood, and, as always, look forward to our mutual participation and cooperation in this continuing and grand effort wisely to present a new revelation in its own time to mankind.

Cordially,

URANTIA Foundation
