Mr. Martin W. Myers
President
URANTIA Foundation
533 Diversey Parkway

Dear Martin:

In response to your letter to Mo Siegel of September 23, 1985 with regard to his request that he be authorized to become a distributor of The URANTIA Book, this will apprise you of the discussion and recommendation of the Board of Directors of Urantia Brotherhood Corporation.

We discussed this request in the context of our position as sales agent. The consensus of the Board was that in order to be consistent with the established guidelines concerning the definition of retail bookstores and wholesale book distributors that URANTIA Foundation should not make any exceptions to these guidelines.

Thank you for giving us the opportunity to consider this request and respond to you. If you have any questions or need any additional information, please let us know.

Yours sincerely,

David
